An Act for augmenting and ascertaining the Income of the Rectors of the Parish Church and Parochial Chapel of Liverpool.

CAP. XVI.

An Act to explain and amend certain Provisions of an Act, made in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, respecting the better Regulation and Management of the Affairs of the East India Company.

Preamble.

24 Geo 3. c. 25.

'WHEREAS, by virtue of an Act, made and passed in the twenty-fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Regulation and Management of the Affairs of the East India Company, and of the British Possessions in India; and for establishing a Court of Judicature for the more speedy and effectual Trial of Persons accused of Offences committed in the East Indies; it is enacted, That whenever any Vacancy of the Office of Governor General or President, or of any Member of the Council, shall happen in any of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort Saint George, or Bombay respectively, the Court of Directors of the said United Company shall proceed to nominate and appoint a fit Person to supply such Vacancy from amongst their covenanted Servants in India, except to the Office of Governor General, or the Office of Governor or President of Fort Saint George, or Bombay,

'or of any Commander in Chief, to which several Offices the said Court of Directors have Liberty to 'appoint any other Person or Persons: And whereas a Doubt may arise whether, according to the strict 'Letter of the said Act, the Nominations and Appointments, made or to be made by the said Court of 'Directors, of any of the covenanted Servants of the said Company to supply the vacant Office of any 'Counsellor or Counsellors in any of the Presidencies aforesaid, are or would be valid or effectual, unless 'such covenanted Servants were actually resident in India at the Times of the making such Nominations 'and Appointments respectively: Therefore, for obviating any such Doubt, may it please your most Ex-'cellent Majesty that it may be enacted and declared;' and be it enacted and declared by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Nominations and Appointments which have been, or shall hereafter be made by the said Court of Directors, for supplying any such Vacancy or Vacancies as aforesaid, of any Person or Persons under Covenant, or who shall have been under Covenant to serve the said United Company in India, were and shall be accepted, held, and taken to have been and hereafter to be valid and effectual, wheresoever such Persons were or may happen to be resident at the Times of the making such Nominations and Appointments respectively.

Certain Nominations of covenanted Servants by the Court of Directors declared valid.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that the said Court of Directors shall not appoint any Person to be of the Council, in any of the said Presidencies (other than the Governor General, or the Governor or President, or Commander in Chief), who shall not, at the Time of his Appointment, have been twelve Years at the least, in the Whole, resident in India, in the Civil Line of the Company's Service; and if any such Appointment other than as aforesaid shall be made, the same shall be null and void.

No Person to be appointed of the Council (except the Governor General, &c.) who has not been 12 Years in the Civil Line of Service.

'III. And whereas it is in and by the said Act also enacted, That when and so often as the Number of 'Members of any of the Councils of Fort William, Fort Saint George, or Bombay, shall by Death or Ab-'sence, or by reason of Sickness, or otherwise, for fourteen Days, be reduced to two, including the Go-'vernor General, or President of such Council, the Person who shall stand Senior in such provisional Ap-'pointment as is therein before mentioned, or in case there shall be no such Appointment, then the Senior 'Civil Servant of the said Company upon the Spot shall be called to such Council, and shall have a Voice 'therein, in like Manner as if he had been appointed thereunto by the said Directors: And whereas the 'said recited Clause or Provision hath been productive of Difficulty and Embarrassment:' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much and such Part of the said recited Act, as directs that the Senior Civil Servant of the Company upon the Spot shall, upon any of the Occasions, or in any of the Events aforesaid, be called to the Council of any of the said Presidencies, or have Voice therein, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

A Clause in 24 Geo. 3. c. 25. recited, and repealed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as the Number of Members of any of the Councils of Fort William, Fort Saint George, or Bombay, shall, by Death or Resignation, be reduced to two, including the Governor General, or the President of such Council for the Time being respectively, and there shall happen to be no Person on the Spot provisionally appointed to succeed to a Seat in such Council, the Governor General and Council within the Presidency of Fort William, and the Governor or President and Council of Fort Saint George, and the Governor or President and Council of Bombay, within their respective Presidencies, shall, and they are hereby severally required to call to such their respective Councils such Person from amongst the Civil Servants of the said Company in such Government or Presidency respectively, who shall have been in the Service of the said Company in India, as a covenanted Servant, for the Space of twelve Years, at the least, in the Whole, as the said Governor General and Council, or Governors or Presidents and Councils, in their several Presidencies, shall severally and respectively think fit; and the Person so called shall have a Seat and Voice in Council, and continue to be a Member thereof until the Vacancy shall be duly supplied and filled, according to the Directions of the said recited Act, and this present Act; and that every Person who shall be so called by the said Governor General and Council, or Governors or Presidents and Councils respectively, to a Seat in the Council of any of the said Presidencies, shall be intitled, for the Time he shall continue therein, to the Salary and Allowance annexed to that Office or Station, and shall and may continue to hold any other Office or Employment which he enjoyed at the Time of his being called to a Seat in Council, if compatible therewith; or such Office or Employment shall and may be held by any Deputy, approved and allowed by Order in Council, during the Time of the Person so called holding his Seat at the Council Board, such Deputy receiving the Profits and Emoluments thereof for his own Use and Benefit.

Temporary Counsellors how to be appointed at Fort William, &c.

'V. And whereas it is in and by the said recited Act enacted, That the Commander in Chief of the 'Company's Forces in India for the Time being shall have Voice and Precedence in the Supreme Council 'next after the Governor General of Fort William; and that the Commanders in Chief at Fort Saint 'George and Bombay, shall respectively be of the Council in the said respective Presidencies: And whereas 'it may be more expedient, that any such Commander in Chief should not, by virtue of his said Office, be 'a Member of any of the said respective Councils, unless he be specially appointed thereto:' Be it therefore enacted, That so much and such Part of the said Act as directs, that the Commander in Chief of the Company's Forces in India for the Time being, or the Commanders in Chief in the Presidencies or Settlements of Fort Saint George and Bombay, shall, by virtue of their said respective Offices, be a Member or Members of any of the Councils of Fort William, Fort Saint George, or Bombay, respectively, or have any Voice or Precedence therein, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Part of the recited Act, relative to Commanders in Chief, repealed.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this or in any former Act contained shall extend to preclude the Court of Directors of the said United Company from appointing the Commander in Chief of Directors may appoint Commander in Chief to be Governor of the Company's Forces in India to be Governor General or a Member of the Supreme Council at Fort William in Bengal; or from appointing either of the said Commanders in Chief of Fort Saint George and Bombay to be President or Member of the Council for the Presidency wherein he shall so be the Commander in Chief; or to prevent or preclude the Court of Directors of the said Company from appointing the Governor General of Bengal, or any other Member of the Supreme Council for the Time being, to be the Commander in Chief of the Company's Forces in India; or from appointing either of the Governors or Presidents of Fort Saint George and Bombay, or any of the Members of Council of the said respective Presidencies for the Time being, to be Commander in Chief of the Forces within the same Presidency of which he shall be the Governor or President, or a Member of Council, if the said Court of Directors shall think fit and expedient so to do.

General, &c. at Fort William; or Commander in Chief of Fort Saint George, or Bombay, to be President there, &c.

'VII. And whereas it would tend greatly to the Strength and Security of the British Possessions in India, 'and give Energy, Vigour, and Dispatch to the Measures and Proceedings of the executive Government 'within the respective Presidencies, if the Governor General of Fort William in Bengal, and the several 'Governors or Presidents of Fort Saint George and Bombay were vested with a discretionary Power of acting 'without the Concurrence of their respective Councils, or forbearing to act, according to their Opinions 'in Cases of high Importance, and essentially affecting the publick Interest and Welfare, thereby subjecting 'themselves personally to answer to their Country for so acting or forbearing to act;' be it therefore enacted,

In extraordinary Cases, the Governor General, &c. may act without the Concurrence of the Council.

That when and so often as any Measure or Question shall be proposed or agitated in the Supreme Council at Fort William in Bengal, or in either of the Councils of Fort Saint George and Bombay, whereby the Interests of the said United Company, or the Safety or Tranquillity of the British Possessions in India, or any Part thereof, are or may, in the Judgment of the Governor General, or of the Presidents of such Councils respectively, be essentially concerned or affected; and the said Governor General, or such Presidents respectively, shall be of Opinion, that it will be expedient either that the Measures so proposed or agitated ought to be adopted or carried into Execution, or that the same ought to be suspended, or wholly rejected, and the several other Members of such Council then present shall differ in, and dissent from such Opinion, the said Governor General, or the President of such Council, and the other Members thereof, shall, and they are hereby directed forthwith mutually to exchange with, and communicate in Council to each other in Writing, under their respective Hands (to be recorded at large on their Secret Consultations), the respective Grounds and Reasons of their respective Opinions; and if, after considering the same, the said Governor General, or the said Presidents respectively, and the other Members of the said Council, shall severally retain their Opinions, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Governor General in the Supreme Council of Fort William, or for either of the said Governors or Presidents in their respective Councils, to make and declare any Order (to be signed and subscribed by the said Governor General, or by the Governor or President making the same) for suspending or rejecting the Measure or Question so proposed or agitated, in Part or in Whole, or to make and declare such Order and Resolution for adopting and carrying the Measure so proposed or agitated into Execution, as the said Governor General, or the said Governors or Presidents, in their respective Councils, shall think fit and expedient; which said last-mentioned Order and Resolution, so made and declared, shall be signed, as well by the said Governor General, or the Governor or President, so making and declaring the same, as by all the other Members of the Council then present, and shall be as effectual and valid, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all the said other Members had advised the same, or concurred therein; any Thing in the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding: And the said Members of Council, and all Officers Civil and Military, and all other Persons concerned, shall be, and they are hereby commanded, authorised, and enjoined to be obedient thereto, and to be aiding and assisting in their respective Stations in the carrying the same into Execution.

Governor General, &c. to be responsible.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Governor General, or the Governor or President, who shall declare and command any such Order or Resolution to be made and recorded without the Assent or Concurrence of any of the other Members of Council, shall alone be held responsible for the same, and the Consequences thereof.

Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to give Power to the said Governor General of Fort William in Bengal, or to either of the said Governors or Presidents of Fort Saint George and Bombay respectively, to make or carry into Execution any Order or Resolution which, before the passing of this Act, could not have been lawfully made and executed with the Concurrence of the Councils of their respective Governments or Presidencies; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Discretionary Powers not to be exercised by any Governor General, &c. who shall casually succeed to such Office.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to give any discretionary Power or Authority of acting or forbearing to act, without the Concurrence of the other Members of Council, unto any Person on whom the said Office of Governor General, or the said Office of Governor or President, respectively, shall happen to devolve, by the Death or Resignation of any Governor General, Governor or President, for the Time being respectively, unless such Person shall have been provisionally appointed to succeed to such respective Office by the Court of Directors of the said Company, or unless and until he shall be afterwards confirmed in the said Office by the said Court; but that, during the Time any of the said Offices shall be so held and executed by any Person, on whom the same shall have so casually devolved, unless he shall have been so provisionally appointed thereto, or until he shall be so confirmed therein as aforesaid, all Matters, Acts, Orders, and Resolutions of the respective Council wherein such Persons shall so preside, shall be determined by the Majority of the Council, in the like Manner as if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Certain Cases in which the new Powers

'XIII. And whereas the Principle of Promotion and Advancement intended to be established by the said 'Act, so far as relates to the Civil Line of the Company's Service in India, may be carried into Effect 'with more Convenience to the publick Service in the Manner herein after directed;' Be it therefore further enacted, That all Vacancies, happening in any of the Offices, Places, or Employments, in the Civil Line of the Company's Service in India (being under the Degree of a Member of the Council), shall be from Time to Time filled up and supplied from amongst the Servants of the said Company belonging to the Presidency wherein such Vacancies shall respectively happen, subject only to the Restrictions in this Act contained, and no otherwise; any Thing in the said former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding. 'WHEREAS by several Acts of Parliament now in force, and made to establish or regulate Courts 'for the Recovery of Small Debts in several Cities, Towns, Districts, and Places within this King-'dom, there is no uniform Time limited for the Duration of the Imprisonment of the Defendant or 'Debtor, against whom an Execution, Process of Contempt, or Precept in the Nature of an Execution, 'is issued for Nonpayment of such Debts and Costs, Sum or Sums of Money, as by the Order or Orders 'of such Courts such Debtor or Defendant is ordered or directed to pay, but such Debtors or Defendants 'are by such Acts of Parliament to be committed to Prison, there to remain for an indefinite Length of 'Time, until he, she, or they shall perform the Order of the Court or Commissioners in that Behalf; so 'that it frequently happens that a poor Person, who is not of Ability to pay a Debt of or under forty 'Shillings, is imprisoned for many Months, and sometimes for Years, without a Possibility of being dis-'charged: And whereas it often happens that poor Persons, who are committed to Prison by virtue of and 'in pursuance of the said Acts of Parliament, for a trifling Debt, are kept in Custody after they have been 'enabled to pay and discharge such Debt, for Gaol Fees: And whereas an Act was made in the last 'Session of Parliament (intituled, An Act for reducing the Time for the Imprisonment of Debtors committed 25 Geo. 3. c 45. 'to Prison, upon Prosecutions in Courts of Conscience, in London, Middlesex, and the Borough of South-'wark, to the same Periods in each Court; and for abolishing Fees paid by those Debtors to Gaolers, or others, 'on account of such Imprisonment), the Purposes of which Act have been found to be beneficial; and it is 'expedient that the like Provisions should be extended to all other Courts instituted for the Recovery of 'Small Debts:' Therefore be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, no Person whosoever, being a Debtor or Defendant, and who has been or shall be committed to any Gaol or Prison by Order of any Court, or Commissioners authorised by any Act or Acts of Parliament for constituting or regulating any Court or Courts for the Recovery of Small Debts, where the Debtors found guilty of a fraudulent Concealment of their Effects, may be imprisoned for a longer Term.

'II. And, in order the more effectually to prevent Persons summoned for Debts to the said Courts from 'the fraudulent Concealment of their Money or Goods;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case, upon the Summons of any Person for Debt before the said Court or Commissioners, Information of any such Practice shall be given, such Court or Commissioners shall have Power to hear Evidence as to such fraudulent Concealment; and in case it shall be proved to their Satisfaction, upon the Oaths of two or more credible Witnesses (which Oath the said Court or Commissioners are hereby impowered to administer, and which Oath, if falsely taken, shall subject the Party or Parties so taking it to all the Pains and Penalties of wilful and corrupt Perjury), that any such Debtor has Money or Goods which he has wilfully and fraudulently concealed; in that Case, the Court or Commissioners shall have Power to enlarge the aforesaid Times of Imprisonment for Debts under twenty Shillings, to any Time not exceeding thirty Days, and for Debts under forty Shillings, to any Time not exceeding sixty Days; which said Circumstance or Ground of further Detention shall be specified in the said Commitment; and the Depositions of the Witnesses shall be entered in a Book to be kept for that Purpose by the Clerk to each respective Court or Commissioners.

Debtors not liable to pay Gaol Fees.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at the Expiration of the said respective Times of Imprisonment as aforesaid, every such Person or Persons shall immediately be discharged and set at Liberty, without paying any Sum or Sums of Money, Fee or Fees, or other Reward or Gratuity whatsoever, to the Gaoler, Keeper, or Turnkey of such Gaol or Prison, or others, by way of Gaol Fees, or Discharge Fees, or otherwise, on any Pretence whatsoever; and every Gaoler, Keeper, or Turnkey of any such Gaol or Prison, or others, demanding, taking, or receiving any Fee or Fees, Sum or Sums of Money whatsoever, upon the Discharge of any such Person or Persons, committed or to be committed to his Custody as aforesaid, or keeping or detaining any such Person or Persons Prisoner or Prisoners, after the respective Times limited by this Act, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by this Act (the necessary Charges for the Recovery thereof being first deducted) shall be divided and distributed in Manner following; that is to say, one Moiety thereof to be paid to the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor, for the Support and Maintenance of the Poor of the Parish in which the Offence shall be committed; and the other Moiety to the Person or Persons who shall inform and sue for the same.

The Officer of the Customs, on Return of the Ship to Great Britain, shall make a Report of her Condition, &c. and Oath shall be made of her not having deviated from the Conditions on which the Certificate was granted; which Documents shall be transmitted to the Commissioners, who shall order a Bounty of 30 s. per Ton.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons shall be allowed or intitled to receive the Bounty herein before granted, for any Ship which shall proceed upon the said Whale Fishery, from any Part of Great Britain, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, after the said twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, unless such Ship shall sail from the Port where she shall be surveyed and cleared, directly on her intended Fishery, on or before the tenth Day of April in each and every Year, and shall continue with her Crew in the Greenland Seas, or Davis's Streights, or the adjacent Seas, diligently endeavouring to catch Whales, or other Creatures living in those Seas, and shall not depart from thence before the tenth Day of August then following, unless such Ship, if she be of the Burthen of three hundred Tons, shall be laden with thirty Tons of Oil, or Blubber in proportion thereto, the Blubber to be rated with respect to the Oil as three to two, and one Ton and a Half of Whale Fins; or if she be of greater or less Burthen, with a Quantity of Oil or Blubber, and Whale Fins, in like Proportion to the Tonnage for which every such Ship shall be intitled to the Bounty, being the Produce of one or more Whale or Whales caught by the Crew thereof, or with the Assistance of the Crew of some other licensed Ship, before that Time, or shall be forced by some unavoidable Accident or Necessity to depart sooner from those Seas; which Accident or Necessity shall be verified on the Oaths of the Master and Mate belonging to such Ship, upon her Return from the said Fishery, before the principal Officers of the Customs, or any two of them (whereof the Collector shall be one), at the Port where she shall arrive, who shall transmit the same, together with the Schedule, Licence, and other Documents by this Act required, to the respective Commissioners of the Customs for that Part of Great Britain where such Ship shall arrive.

No Person shall be intitled to the Bounty, unless the Ship sails from the Port of Survey before April 10, yearly, and continues fishing till Aug. 10 following, unless laden with the Quantities of Oil, &c. herein specified; or forced by unavoidable Accident to depart sooner, which shall be verified on Oath, and transmitted with the other Documents to the Commissioners of the Customs.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case it shall happen, during the Continuance of this Act, that any Ship or Vessel shall not sail from the Port where she shall be surveyed and cleared, directly on her intended Fishery, on or before the said tenth Day of April in any Year, provided it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively, that such Ship or Vessel was properly qualified and duly fitted out, according to the Directions of this Act, and surveyed, cleared, and ready for sailing, before the said tenth Day of April, but was prevented from sailing by some unavoidable Impediment or Necessity, but shall actually have sailed on or before the twenty-fifth Day of April in every such Year, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any four or more of them in England, or any three or more of them in Scotland, to pay the Bounty for such Ship or Vessel, in like Manner as if such Ship or Vessel had actually sailed on or before the said tenth Day of April.

If a Ship ready for sailing by April 10, is by unavoidable Necessity prevented from sailing till April 25, the Bounty may be paid.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively, to order the respective Receivers General of the Customs, in case the Monies remaining in their Hands arising from the old Subsidy, shall not be sufficient, at any Time or Times during the Continuance of this Act, to satisfy the said Bounty of thirty Shillings per Ton, payable on all Ships employed in the said Fishery, according to the Directions of this present Act, to pay the same out of any Monies that shall be in their Hands, arising from any of the Duties and Revenues under their Management respectively.

Bounties to be paid out of any Monies in the Hands of the Receiver General.

' VII. And whereas it hath been found by Experience, that Ships of one hundred and fifty Tons Burthen ' are fit for the said Fishery;' be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That every Owner or Owners of any Ship or Ships of one hundred and fifty Tons Burthen, which shall be employed in the said Fishery, who have conformed themselves, in proportion to their Tonnage, to the Rules and Directions herein before prescribed to the Owners of Ships of greater Burthen, shall be intitled to the said Bounty, according to the Admeasurement of such Ship or Ships respectively, provided such Admeasurement be not less than one hundred and fifty Tons.

Ships of 150 Tons Burthen intitled to the Bounty.

No Ship shall be intitled to a larger Bounty than for 400 Tons, and only for five Years from Dec. 25, 1786; and if not employed in the Fishery before that Day, not larger than for 300 Tons.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Ship or Vessel at this Time employed in the said Fishery, although she be above the Burthen of four hundred Tons, shall be intitled to a larger Bounty than a Ship of four hundred Tons would be intitled to, and that she shall continue to enjoy the same for the Space of five Years, and no longer, from the said twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, in case such Ship or Vessel shall not be worn out, or have ceased before that Time to carry on the said Fishery; and that no Ship or Vessel which shall not, before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, have been employed in the said Fishery, although such Ship or Vessel shall be above the Burthen of three hundred Tons, shall be intitled to a larger Bounty than a Ship or Vessel of three hundred Tons would be intitled to.

Ships of more than 400 Tons, or 300 Tons, need not be fitted out but as of those Burthens, to intitle them to the Bounty.

IX. Provided also, That nothing in this present Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to oblige the Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel above the Burthen of four hundred Tons, or three hundred Tons respectively before mentioned, to fit out, equip, and man any such Ship, otherwise than as a Ship or Vessel of the Burthen of four hundred Tons, or three hundred Tons respectively, according to the Directions of this Act, in order to intitle him or them to the Bounty herein before granted.

No Bounty shall be allowed to any Ship where a Log Book has not been properly kept;

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Bounty granted by this Act shall be paid or allowed to any Person or Persons whatever, on account of any Ship or Vessel employed in the said Fishery, unless a Log Book shall have been constantly kept on board such Ship or Vessel, in which Log Book the various Situations and Occurrences, respecting such Ship or Vessel, during the whole Course of the Voyage, shall be inserted every Day, and particularly the Times when such Ship or Vessel shall have been in Sight of Land, distinguishing what Land, and the Bearings thereof, and the supposed Distances therefrom, and the Soundings; and also the Time when, and the Latitude in which, any Whale, or other Creature living in the Sea, shall have been killed, taken, or caught by the Crew of such Ship or Vessel; which Log Book, so to be kept as aforesaid, shall be delivered by the Master, or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, at the Time of his making a Report of such Ship or Vessel, to the Collector of the Customs at the Port in Great Britain where such Ship or Vessel shall arrive on her Return from the said Fishery, for his Inspection and Examination; and the said Master, or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, together with the Mate thereof, shall jointly and severally verify on Oath the Contents of such Log Book before such Collector, who is hereby authorised and required to administer the same.

which shall be delivered to the Collector of the Customs, before whom the Contents shall be verified on Oath.

If a Ship of War is met at Sea, the Log Book must be produced to the Captain, who must make therein a Memorandum of the Production, &c.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any such Ship or Vessel shall, in the Course of her Voyage, meet or fall in with any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, the Master, or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of her, shall, and is hereby required to produce to the Captain, or other Officer commanding such Ship or Vessel of War, the said Log Book so to be kept as aforesaid, and such Captain or Commanding Officer shall, and is hereby required to make a Memorandum in such Log Book, of the Day on which it was so produced to him, and shall subscribe his Name to such Memorandum, and shall also make an Entry in the Log Book of the said Ship or Vessel of War, of the Name and Description of the Ship or Vessel, on board of which the Log Book of such Ship or Vessel so produced to and signed by him was kept; and in case such Ship or Vessel, on board of which a Log Book is so required to be kept as aforesaid, shall put into any foreign Port, where there is or shall be a British Consul, or other Chief British Officer, the Master, or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall, and is hereby required to produce such Log Book to such British Consul, or other Chief British Officer, who shall and is hereby required also to make a Memorandum therein, of the Day on which it was so produced to him, and shall in like Manner subscribe the same.

Ships fitted out from Ireland, agreeable to the Regulations of this Act, shall be intitled to the Bounty.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Ship or Vessel, owned by his Majesty's Subjects residing in Ireland, and fitted out from any Port in that Kingdom, which shall have complied with the Conditions of this Act, to be verified by Certificates, in such Manner, and under the like Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions as are required, by any Law in force before the passing of this Act, to intitle Ships or Vessels, fitted out from Ireland, to the Bounties then existing for the Encouragement of the Greenland and Whale Fishery, shall, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, be intitled to such and the same Bounties as the like Ships or Vessels fitted out from Great Britain, or the Islands aforesaid, shall be intitled to by virtue of this Act.

'XIII. And whereas Applications have heretofore been made to Parliament for the Bounty on Ships 'or Vessels employed in the said Fishery that have happened to be lost at Sea before their Return to 'Great Britain, and a Doubt hath arisen whether the said Bounty may be lawfully insured by the 'Owner or Owners of such Ships; for obviating such Doubt, and for preventing any future Ap-'plications to Parliament for the Bounty on any such Ships,' be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owner or Owners of any Ship employed, or designed to be employed in the said Fishery, to insure the Bounty which such Owner or Owners would be intitled to upon the Return of such Ship to the Port to which the Master, and one or more of the Owners of such Ship or Vessel, shall have declared, on Oath, their Intention to return; and on the Per-but not unless Oath is made that the Cargo was caught by the Crews of such Ships.

XV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to give Liberty of importing any of the before-mentioned Articles Duty-free, unless the Master and Mate of the Ship or Vessel importing the same shall first make Oath before the principal Officers of the Customs, or any two of them (of which the Collector shall be one), in the Port or Ports of Importation (who are hereby respectively authorised and required to administer such Oath), that all the Whale Fins, Oil, or Blubber of Whales, Seal Oil, Seal Skins, or other Produce of Seals, or other Fish or Creatures imported in such Ship or Vessel, are really and bona fide the Fins, Oil, or Blubber of Whales, or the Skins, Oil, or other Produce of Seals, or other Fish or Creatures caught and taken in the said Greenland Seas or Davis's Streights, or in the Seas adjacent, by the Crews of such Ships or Vessels only, owned, fitted out, and navigated as aforesaid.

Persons granting or using false Certificates forfeit 500*l*.

No Harpooner, &c. shall be impressed;

'XVII. And whereas the Greenland Fishery Trade cannot be carried on without a certain Number of 'Men particularly qualified to carry on the said Fishery;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Harpooner, Line Manager, or Boat Steerer, who shall be in, or belong to, any Ship or Vessel in the Greenland Fishery Trade, and whose Name (distinguishing the Capacity in which the Person so named is to act) shall be inserted in a List, which is hereby required to be delivered, on Oath, by the Owner of such Ship or Vessel to the Collector of the Customs at the Port from which such Ship or Vessel is intended to proceed upon the said Fishery (which Oath such Collector is hereby impowered and required to administer), shall be impressed from the said Service; and that any such Harpooner, Line Manager, or Boat Steerer, may, during the Time of the Year that he or they are not employed in the said Fishery, sail in the Colliery Trade, upon giving Security, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Customs, that he or they will proceed in the said Ship or Vessel to the Greenland Seas, or Davis's Streights, on the Whale Fishery, the next Season; and that every Seaman or common Mariner who, after the first Day of February, in any Year during the Continuance of this Act, shall be entered to serve on board any Ship which shall be intended to proceed on the said Fishery in the following Season, whose Name shall be inserted in a List to be delivered as aforesaid, and who shall have given Security to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Customs to proceed, and shall proceed accordingly, shall be privileged and exempt from being impressed from or out of the said Service from the said first Day of February, till after the Expiration of the then next Season for the said Fishery, and until the Voyage home from thence shall be fully complete and ended, and no longer; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

How Penalties are to be appropriated.

CAP. LII.

An Act for the more effectually preventing the fraudulent Removal of Tobacco, and for the Ease of the fair Trader; for discontinuing the Discount upon Payment on Bonds before due, and establishing the Duty to be paid upon Tobacco of the Growth of the British Plantations, and the United States of America.

'WHEREAS the several Provisions for preventing the fraudulent Removal of Tobacco by Land or Water, contained in an Act made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act for the better securing the Duties payable on Tobacco), have Commencement from the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six; notwithstanding which Provisions, such Tobacco as was imported before that Time hath been or may be removed by Land or Water, otherwise than as by the said Act is directed, inasmuch as the same having been imported before that Time cannot be subject to the Regulations prescribed by the said Act: And whereas the Continuance of this Liberty may encourage the Importers or Possessors of uncustomed Tobacco to pretend that the same was imported before the said first day of January one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, and, under that Pretence, Tobacco imported since that Time, and Tobacco Stalks stripped, and Snuff manufactured therefrom, may be removed otherwise than by the said Act is directed, to the great Prejudice both of the Publick Revenue and of the fair Trader: And whereas it is expedient that all such Tobacco as shall have been lawfully imported, and was Stock in Hand before that Time, should be subject and liable to all and every the several and respective Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, directed and contained in the said herein-before recited Act;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, no Tobacco which shall have been imported into Great Britain before the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, nor any Tobacco Stalks stripped, nor Snuff manufactured from Tobacco so imported, shall be removed, carried, or conveyed, either by Land or by Water, in any other Manner than as is directed by the said recited Act; and the same shall, in every Respect, be under and subject to the several Rules, Regulations, Oaths, and Restrictions directed and contained in the said Act; and that all and each and every the Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, inflicted and incurred by the said recited Act, on the Removal of Tobacco imported since the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, or Tobacco Stalks stripped, or Snuff manufactured from Tobacco so imported, contrary to the said recited Act, and the several Rewards and Distributions therein directed, shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all Intents and Purposes, to the Removal of Tobacco which shall have been imported into this Kingdom, previous to the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, and to Tobacco Stalks stripped, and Snuff manufactured from Tobacco so imported. Preamble. Recital of 25 Geo. 3. c. 81. From June 24, 1786, all Tobacco, &c. though imported prior to Jan. 1, 1786, liable to the Regulations of the recited Act.

'II. And whereas, in and by the said recited Act, it is provided, That if any Importer or Proprietor of Tobacco, who hath given Security for the Payment of the Duties in eighteen Months, shall be desirous to discharge his Bond or Bonds, or any Part thereof, in ready Money, sooner than the Expiration of the said eighteen Months, so much shall be abated upon such Bond or Bonds, as the Discount, at the Rate of seven Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall amount to, in proportion to the Time unexpired: And whereas it is expedient that the said Discount should be discontinued;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said recited Act as provides, that if any Importer or Proprietor of Tobacco, that hath given Security as aforesaid, for the Payment of the Duties in eighteen Months, shall be desirous to discharge his Bond or Bonds, or any Part thereof, in ready Money, sooner than the Expiration of the said eighteen Months, No Discount to be allowed on Discharge of Security Bonds.

Months, he shall be abated upon such Bond or Bonds so much as the Discount, at the Rate of seven Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall amount to, in proportion to the Time unexpired, shall be, and is hereby repealed.

'III. And whereas Tobacco of the Growth of the British Colonies or Plantations in America, or of the 'Growth of the United States of America, imported previous to the first Day of January one thousand seven 'hundred and eighty-six, is subject to the Payment of the Duty of fifteen Pence, and two hundred and 'thirty-nine two hundred and fortieth Parts of a Penny, per Pound Weight, in case the Duties are not paid 'down in ready Money at the Time of the Entry of such Tobacco, but the same are secured by Bond, and 'the Importers thereof are intitled to a Discount after the Rate of seven Pounds per Centum per Annum, 'on the Amount of certain of the said Duties for the Time unexpired in the Bonds given for Payment 'thereof: And whereas it would be a great Hardship upon the Importers of such Tobacco, if they were 'to pay such Duties;' be it therefore further enacted, That no Tobacco imported previous to the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, and for which Bond shall have been given for securing the Duties payable thereupon, and which is now remaining unsold in the Warehouse under the King's Locks, shall be subject or liable to pay more than the Duty of one Shilling and two Pence, and seventy-nine eightieth Parts of a Penny, for every Pound Weight of the same, according to the Weights of such Tobacco, taken by the proper Officers of the Customs on landing of the same at the Importation thereof.

American Tobacco imported prior to Jan. 1, 1786, remaining in the King's Warehouse, to pay 1 s. 2 d. and 79-80ths of 1 d. per lb. Duty. No Discount to be allowed on Payment of the said Duty. Duties to be appropriated as heretofore.

IV. Provided always, That the Importer or Importers of such Tobacco, upon paying up the said Duty of one Shilling and two Pence, and seventy-nine eightieth Parts of a Penny, per Pound Weight, shall not be intitled to any Discount whatsoever.

V. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to alter in any Respect the Manner of appropriating the Duties upon such Tobacco; and that the present Duties of one Shilling and two Pence, and seventy-nine eightieth Parts of a Penny, per Pound Weight, shall be appropriated in the same Manner, and to the same Branches to which such Duties were applicable before the making of this Act.

'VI. And whereas Tobacco, after having undergone certain Kinds of Manufacture, becomes known 'by the respective Names of Carrot or Roll, Pigtail or Twisted Tobacco, and, from the Nature of the Ma- 'nufacture, necessarily imbibes and retains a Quantity of Water or other Ingredients, whereby the Weight 'becomes considerably increased, and the Revenue materially injured;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, upon the Examination by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, any Carrot or Roll Tobacco, entered for Exportation, shall be found to contain of Water, or any Ingredients other than Tobacco, more than twelve Pounds for every one hundred Pounds Weight, or if any Pigtail, or Twisted Tobacco, entered as aforesaid, shall be found to contain of Water, or any Ingredients other than Tobacco, more than ten Pounds for every one hundred Pounds Weight, all such Tobacco shall be forfeited.

Roll Tobacco for Exportation, containing any Mixture of more than 12 lb. and Twisted Tobacco more than 10 lb. per Cwt. to be forfeited.

'VII. And whereas there is a Species of manufactured Tobacco, known by the Name of Cut Tobacco, 'which ought not to contain a greater Weight of Stalk in proportion to the Leaf than that of one Pound of 'Stalk to four Pounds of Leaf, which, in the natural State of Tobacco, before it is so manufactured, 'is the usual Proportion;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, upon the Examination by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, any Cut Tobacco entered for Exportation shall be found to contain of Stalk more than the said Proportion, all such Cut Tobacco shall be forfeited.

Cut Tobacco for Exportation, containing more than 1 5 n Part Stalk forfeited.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Carrot or Roll Tobacco, or Pigtail or Twisted Tobacco, shall be seized as containing more than the due Proportion of Water, or any Ingredients other than Tobacco, or if any Cut Tobacco shall be seized as containing more than the due Proportion of Stalk, and the Proprietor or Proprietors of such Tobacco respectively, or his or their Agent, shall deny that the Carrot or Roll Tobacco, or the Pigtail or Twisted Tobacco seized, do respectively contain more than the due Proportion of Water, or any Ingredients other than Tobacco, or that the Cut Tobacco does contain more than the due Proportion of Stalk, then, and in such Case, the Matter in Dispute shall be referred to the Determination of two indifferent Persons, one of whom shall be named by the Officer or Officers who shall have seized the same, and the other by the said Proprietor or Proprietors, or his or their Agent; and in case the two Persons so nominated shall not agree, it shall and may be lawful for the said two Persons to nominate a third Person, who shall finally determine the Matter in Controversy: Provided always, That such Reference shall be made within the Space of three Days from the Day of Seizure; and that if at the End of the third Day the Referrees, nominated as aforesaid, shall not have decided, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any four or more of them, or the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland, or any three or more of them, respectively, or for the Collector and Comptroller in any of the Out-ports, as the Case may be, to appoint an Arbitrator, who shall finally determine the Matter in Dispute.

How Disputes relative to the Mixture of Tobacco, &c. are to be determined.

'IX. And whereas there is a Difference at this Time existing in the Monies payable upon the Importa- 'tion of Tobacco of the Growth or Production of his Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Terri- 'tories in America, or of the Growth or Production of the United States of America; that is to say, Whe- 'ther the Duties are paid down in ready Money, or whether they are secured by Bond: And whereas it is 'expedient that such Difference should be abolished, and that the Monies to be paid in future shall, 'in all Cases, be in Amount the same as the Duties which would be due and payable in case the Im- 'porter or Proprietor had not secured the same by Bond, but had paid down the Duties in ready Mo- 'ney;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, the Monies to be paid upon the Importation into Great Britain, of Tobacco of the Growth of his Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories in America,

Tobacco from his Majesty's Colonies in America, or the America, or of the Growth or Production of the United States of America, whether the Duties shall be paid down in ready Money at the Time of Importation, or whether the same shall be secured by Bond, as is now by Law allowed, shall and are hereby directed to be the same which are now due and payable in the Case of an Importer or Proprietor of Tobacco paying the Duties down in ready Money at the Time of the Importation thereof, and not securing the same by Bond; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding. United States, liable to the same Duty, whether paid on Importation, or secured by Bond.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Discount shall be paid or allowed, nor any Allowance whatever shall be made to any Person or Persons whatever, upon Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money in Discharge of any Bond or Bonds already given or entered into in pursuance of the said herein-before recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, or which shall be hereafter given or entered into, in pursuance of the said herein-before recited Act, before the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, unless the Person or Persons so paying the same shall, within twenty Days after he or they shall have so paid the same, take the Tobacco for which he or they shall have so paid such Sum or Sums of Money out of the Warehouse or Warehouses belonging to his Majesty, wherein such Tobacco shall have been lodged or deposited. No Discount to be allowed on Bonds entered into under recited Act, unless, in 20 Days after Discharge, the Tobacco is removed.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, at the Time of obtaining the Certificate of Registry as aforesaid, sufficient Security by Bond shall be given to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by the Master and such of the Owners as shall personally attend, as is herein before required, such Security to be approved of and taken by the Person or Persons herein before authorised to make such Registry, and grant such Certificates of Registry, at the Port or Place in which such Certificate shall be granted, in the Penalties following; (that is to say), If such Ship or Vessel shall be a decked Vessel, or be above the Burthen of fifteen Tons, and not exceeding fifty Tons, in the Penalty of one hundred Pounds; if exceeding the Burthen of fifty Tons, and not exceeding one hundred Tons, in the Penalty of three hundred Pounds; if exceeding the Burthen of one hundred Tons, and not exceeding two hundred Tons, in the Penalty of five hundred Pounds; if exceeding the Burthen of two hundred Tons, and not exceeding three hundred Tons, in the Penalty of eight hundred Pounds; and if exceeding the Burthen of three hundred Tons, in the Penalty of one thousand Pounds: And the Condition of every such Bond shall be, that such Certificate shall not be sold, lent, or otherwise disposed of, to any Person or Persons whatever, and that the same shall be solely made use of for the Service of the Ship or Vessel for which it is granted; and that in case such Ship shall be lost, or taken by the Enemy, burnt, or broken up, or otherwise prevented from returning to the Port to which she belongs, the Certificate, if preserved, shall be delivered up, within one Month after the Arrival of the Master in any Port or Place in his Majesty's Dominions, to the Collector and Comptroller of some Port in Great Britain, or of the Isle of Man, or of the British Plantations, or to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief, for the Time being, of the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey; and that if any Foreigner, or any Person or Persons for his Use and Benefit, shall purchase or otherwise become intitled to the Whole, or any Part or Share of, or any Interest in, such Ship or Vessel, and the same shall be within the Limits of any Port in Great Britain, Guernsey, Jersey, Man, or the British Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories aforesaid, then and in such Case the Certificate of Registry shall, within seven Days after such Purchase or Transfer of Property in such Ship or Vessel, be delivered up to the Person or Persons herein before authorised to make Registry, and grant Certificates of Registry at such Port or Place respectively, as aforesaid; and if such Ship or Vessel shall be in any foreign Port when such Purchase or Transfer of Interest or Property shall take place, then that the same shall be delivered up to the British Consul, or other Chief British Officer, resident at or nearest to such foreign Port; or if such Ship or Vessel shall be at Sea when such Purchase or Transfer of Interest or Property shall take place, then that the same shall be delivered up to the British Consul, or other Chief British Officer, at the foreign Port or Place in or at which the Master, or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall first arrive after such Purchase or Transfer of Property at Sea, immediately after his Arrival at such foreign Port; but if such Master, or other Person who had the Command thereof

'XVI. And whereas the Provisions made in and by the said recited Act, touching the Indorsement on 'Certificates of Registry, in case of any Alteration of the Property in any Ship or Vessel, in the same 'Port to which the Ship or Vessel belongs, have been found insufficient; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, in every such Case, besides the Indorsement required by the said recited Act, there shall also be indorsed on the Certificate of Registry, before two Witnesses, the Town, Place, or Parish, where all and every Person or Persons to whom the Property in any Ship or Vessel, or any Part thereof, shall be so transferred, shall reside; or if such Person or Persons usually reside in any Country not under the Dominion of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, but in some British Factory, the Name of such Factory of which such Person or Persons is or are Member or Members; or if such Person or Persons reside in any foreign Town or City, and are not Members of some British Factory, the Name of such foreign Town or City where such Person or Persons usually reside, and also the Names of the House or Copartnership in Great Britain or Ireland, for or with whom such Person or Persons is or are Agent or Partner, or Agents or Partners; and the Person or Persons to whom the Property of such Ship or Vessel shall be so transferred, or his or their Agent, shall also deliver a Copy of such Indorsement to the Person or Persons authorised to make Registry, and grant Certificates of Registry, as aforesaid, who are hereby required to cause an Entry thereof to be indorsed on the Oath or Affidavit upon which the original Certificate of Registry of such Ship or Vessel was obtained; and shall also make a Memorandum of the same in the Book of Registers which is hereby directed and required to be kept, and shall forthwith give Notice thereof to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, under whom they respectively act.

Tenor of Indorsements on Certificates of Registry, &c.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when and so often as the Property in any Ship or Vessel, belonging to any of his Majesty's Subjects, shall be transferred to any other or others of his Majesty's Subjects, in Whole or in Part, the Certificate of the Registry of such Ship or Vessel shall be truly and accurately recited, in Words at Length, in the Bill or other Instrument of Sale thereof, and that otherwise such Bill of Sale shall be utterly null and void, to all Intents and Purposes.

Certificate to be recited in all Transfers of Property.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when and so often as the Master, or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel, registered in Manner herein before directed, shall be changed, the Master or Owner of such Ship or Vessel shall deliver to the Person or Persons herein before authorised to make such Registry, and grant such Certificates of Registry, at the Port where such Change shall take place, the Certificate of Registry belonging to such Ship or Vessel; who shall thereupon indorse and subscribe a Memorandum of such Change, and shall forthwith give Notice of the same to the proper Officer of the Port or Place where such Ship or Vessel was last registered pursuant to this Act; who shall likewise make a Memorandum of the same in the Book of Registers which is hereby directed and required to be kept, and shall forthwith give Notice thereof to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively.

Changes of Masters of Vessels to be indorsed on Certificates of Registry, &c.

'XIX. And whereas many Frauds are committed by the frequent Change of Names given to Ships and 'Vessels, and the Difficulty of comparing the Entry in the Book of Registers, herein after directed to be 'kept by all such Person or Persons as are authorised to register Ships and Vessels, and to grant Certificates of 'the same, with the Registers of which they claim the Benefit, is thereby greatly increased;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful for any Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel to give any Name to such Ship or Vessel, other than that by which she was first registered in pursuance of this Act; and that the Owner or Owners of all and every Ship or Vessel which shall be so registered, shall, within one Month from the Time of such Registry, paint, or cause to be painted, in white or yellow Letters, of a Length not less than four Inches, upon a black Ground, on some conspicuous Part of the Stern (provided there shall be sufficient Space for that Purpose, but if not, then in Letters as large as such Space will admit), the Name by which such Ship or Vessel shall have been registered pursuant to this Act, and the Port to which she belongs, in a distinct and legible Manner, and shall so keep and preserve the same; and that if such Owner or Owners, or Master, or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall wilfully alter, erase, obliterate, or in anywise hide or conceal, or cause or procure, or permit the same to be done, unless in the Case of Square-rigged Vessels in Time of War, or shall in any written or printed Paper, or other Document, describe such Ship or Vessel by any Name, other than that by which she was first registered pursuant to this Act, or shall verbally describe, or cause or procure or permit such Ship or Vessel to be described, by any other Name, to any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Revenue, in the due Execution of his or their Duty, then, and in every such Persons making Application in the Colonies, after Jan. 1, 1787, to conform to the Particulars in the last Clause.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons who, from and after the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, shall apply for such Certificate as aforesaid, in any of his Majesty's said Colonies, Plantations, or Territories, shall, before such Certificate is granted, produce the like Account, under the Hand of the Builder, and take the like Oath as is herein before required to be produced and taken by Persons applying for the like Certificate in Great Britain.

If Certificates be lost, new ones to be granted, according to Act 15 Geo. 2. c. 31.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Certificate of the Registry of any Ship or Vessel which shall be obtained in pursuance of this Act, shall happen to be lost or mislaid, a Register and Certificate de novo, in the Form herein before directed, shall be granted for such Ship or Vessel, according to the Regulations contained in an Act, passed in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the Second, intituled, An Act for further regulating the Plantation Trade; and for Relief of Merchants importing Prize Goods from America; and for preventing collusive Captures there; and for obliging the Claimers of Vessels seized for Exportation of Wool, or any unlawful Importation, to give Security for Costs; and for allowing East India Goods to be taken out of Warehouses, in order to be cleaned and refreshed.

Security to be given, on receiving fresh Certificates, and Oath made as herein before directed, instead of the Oath 15 Geo. 2. c. 31.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every such Case such Security shall be given as is herein before directed; and that in lieu of the Oath directed to be taken by the said recited Act, the like Oath shall be taken and subscribed, as is herein before directed to be taken and subscribed by the Owner or Owners of such Ships and Vessels as are required to be registered by virtue of this Act.

Ships, if altered, must be registered anew, or to be deemed foreign.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Ship or Vessel, after she shall have been registered pursuant to the Directions of this Act, shall in any Manner whatever be altered in Form or Burthen, by being lengthened or built upon, or shall be altered from a Sloop to a Brigantine, or from any one Denomination of a Vessel to another, by the Mode or Method of rigging or fitting, in such Case such Ship or Vessel shall be registered de novo, in Manner herein before required, as soon as she returns to the Port to which she belongs, or to any other Port in which she may be legally registered by virtue of this Act, on Failure whereof such Ship or Vessel shall to all Intents and Purposes be considered, and deemed and taken to be a foreign Ship or Vessel.

The Condemnation of Prizes, and the Particulars of the Vessels, &c. must be produced, to intitle to a Certificate of Registry.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Owner or Owners of all such Ships and Vessels as shall be taken by any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or by any private or other Ship or Vessel, and condemned as lawful Prize in any Court of Admiralty, shall, upon registering such Ship or Vessel, before he or they shall obtain such Certificate as aforesaid, produce to the proper Officer of his Majesty's Customs a Certificate of the Condemnation of such Ship or Vessel, under the Hand and Seal of the Judge of the Court in which such Ship or Vessel shall have been condemned (which Certificate such Judge is hereby authorised and required to grant), and also a true and exact Account, in Writing, of all the Particulars contained in the Certificate herein before set forth, to be made and subscribed by one or more skilful Persons to be appointed by the Court to survey such Ship or Vessel; and shall also make Oath before the said Officer (which he is hereby authorised and required to administer) that such Ship or Vessel is the same Vessel which is mentioned in the Certificate of the Judge aforesaid.

The Sum on Oath, for which a Prize sold in the Colonies, to be subjoined to the Certificate.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all the Cases where any Ship or Vessel, so taken and condemned as aforesaid, in any of his Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories aforesaid, shall be registered, and obtain a Certificate of such Registry, in Manner herein before directed, an exact and particular Account shall be subjoined to such Certificate, of the Sum for which such Ship

Ship or Vessel shall have been sold, verified by the Oath of the Person or Persons who shall apply for such Registry and Certificate, in order that the aforesaid Duties due and payable to his Majesty, may be the better levied and collected, upon the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel in any Port or Place of Great Britain where such Duties are by Law due and payable.

'XXVIII. And whereas the Trade to and from his Majesty's European Dominions, and the Colonies, 'Plantations, Islands, and Territories, in Asia, Africa, and America, to his Majesty belonging, is now by 'Law confined to such Ships only as are of the Built of Great Britain and Ireland, the Islands of Guernsey, 'Jersey, and Man, and of the said Colonies, Plantations, Islands, and Territories: And whereas Ships 'wholly owned by British Subjects, and navigated according to Law, can be legally used and employed 'only in the European Trade of this Kingdom, and the same are, by virtue of this Act, allowed to be con-'tinued in the said Trade until the same shall be worn out; and it is therefore necessary to distinguish 'such Ships and Vessels respectively in the Certificates to be granted pursuant to this Act;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Certificates which shall hereafter be granted in pursuance of this Act, shall distinguish whether such Ships or Vessels be of the Built of Great Britain or Ireland, Guernsey, Jersey, or the Isle of Man, or the Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories aforesaid, or of any foreign Country; and shall, if British-built, be intituled, Certificate of British Plantation Registry; and if such Ships be Foreign-built, shall be intituled, Certificate of Foreign Ships Registry for the European Trade, British Property, as the Case may be.

'XXIX. And whereas many Foreign-built Ships and Vessels belonging to, or pretending to belong to, 'his Majesty's Subjects, have, by fraudulent Contrivances, and under false Pretences, obtained Registers, by 'virtue of which such Ships and Vessels are at present used and employed, contrary to the Laws now in 'force, in the Trade to and from his Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories, in Asia, 'Africa, and America; and it is therefore expedient and necessary, for detecting the Frauds at present 'committed, and for preventing the same in future, that all Registers heretofore granted should be called in, 'and delivered up to the proper Officer to be cancelled, and that new Registers, of the Form herein be-'fore described, should be granted in lieu thereof, in the Manner herein before directed, to all such Ships 'or Vessels as shall appear to be legally intitled to the same: And whereas it is expedient to specify and 'direct at what Time, and in what Manner, all other Ships and Vessels, which are not now by Law re-'quired to be registered, should hereafter be registered, according to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, 'and should receive Certificates according to the Form and in the Manner herein before directed:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively, be authorised and required, and they are hereby authorised and required, to give publick Notice, by all such Ways and Means as they shall judge most proper and effectual, that within a certain reasonable Time or Times, as may be best adapted to the Distance of the Ports to which the Ships and Vessels owned by his Majesty's Subjects shall respectively belong, to be by them specified and published, Certificates of Registry, according to the Form herein before described, will be ready to be granted, in Manner herein before directed, to all such Ships and Vessels as shall be legally intitled thereunto; and that the Owner or Owners of every such Ship or Vessel, not heretofore required to be registered, shall, on the first Arrival of every such Ship or Vessel at the Port or Place to which she belongs, after the Expiration of the Notice herein before directed, cause such Ship or Vessel to be registered, and shall obtain a Certificate thereof, in Manner herein before directed; and that the Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel, which shall have been heretofore registered, shall in like Manner, upon the first Arrival of such Ship or Vessel at the Port or Place to which she belongs, after the Expiration of the Notice herein before directed, cause such Ship or Vessel to be again registered, and obtain a Certificate thereof, according to the Form and in the Manner herein before described, and shall then deliver up the Register before granted, if the same be not lost or mislaid, and if the same shall have been lost or mislaid, shall make Oath before the proper Officer of the Customs, that such Register has been lost or mislaid, and shall give Security in like Manner as is directed and required by the said Act passed in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the Second, in the Case of Registers and Certificates de novo.

Ships already registered to exchange their Certificates for new ones, and others now required to be registered, to apply for Certificates, &c.

XXX. And be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the Expiration of the Notice herein before directed, twelve Months shall be allowed to all Ships and Vessels belonging to any of the Ports of Great Britain, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, to be registered and obtain Certificates, according to the Form and in the Manner herein before described; and that, in like Manner, from and after the Expiration of the Notice herein before directed, eighteen Months shall be allowed to all Ships and Vessels belonging to any of the Ports in his Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories in Africa or America, to be registered, and to obtain Certificates according to the Form, and in the Manner herein before described; and that, in like Manner, from and after the Expiration of the Notice herein before directed, thirty Months shall be allowed to all Ships and Vessels trading or fishing beyond the Cape of Good Hope, or Cape Horn, to be registered, and obtain Certificates according to the Form, and in the Manner herein before described: And that at the End of the said Term of twelve Months, with respect to such Ships and Vessels as belong to the Ports of Great Britain, and the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man; and in like Manner, at the End of the said Term of eighteen Months, with respect to all Ships and Vessels that belong to any of the Ports of his Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories in Africa or America; and in like Manner, at the End of the said Term of thirty Months, with respect to all Ships and Vessels trading or fishing beyond the Cape of Good Hope, or Cape Horn, no other Register or Certificate shall be of Force or Effect, except such as shall be granted in pursuance of this Act; and that all other Registers and Certificates shall from thenceforth be utterly null and void, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Times allowed for obtaining such Certificates.

XXXI. Provided

XXXI. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case it shall happen that any such Ship or Vessel, from any unavoidable Necessity, or reasonable Cause, shall not return to the Port to which she belongs within the Time herein before limited, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively for the Time being, and they are hereby required, upon Proof being made to their Satisfaction of such unavoidable Necessity or reasonable Cause, to cause such Ship or Vessel to be registered upon the Terms and Conditions, and under the Regulations and Restrictions directed and required by this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Certificates may be granted, where, from unavoidable Necessity, Application could not be made in Time limited.

XXXII. An Act for repealing so much of two Acts, passed in the fourteenth and twenty-first Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, as prohibits the Exportation of Wool Cards of a limited Price.

Preamble. 14 Geo. 3. c. 71; and 21 Geo. 3. c. 37. recited.

'WHEREAS by a Clause in an Act passed in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act to prevent the Exportation to foreign Parts of Utensils made use of in the Cotton, Linen, Woollen, and Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom), the collecting of Tolls and Implements used in the Woollen Manufacture, with Intent to export the same, is prohibited under certain Penalties and Forfeitures: And whereas by an Act passed in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, to explain and amend the said recited Act, certain Regulations were established, and further Penalties enacted for more effectually preventing the Exportation of the before mentioned Utensils, except Wool Cards and Spinners Cards of a certain Value, which, by the said last recited Act, were permitted to be exported to the Places therein mentioned: And whereas the Exportation of such Wool Cards to the Parts mentioned in the said last recited Act, hath been very beneficial to this Country, and the same being of a Sort unfit for the combing of Wool of this Kingdom, the allowing of a general Exportation thereof to foreign Parts will be highly serviceable to a great Number of poor Families in England, employed in the Trade of making such Wool Cards;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said two recited Acts as prohibits the collecting or obtaining of Implements or Tools used in the Woollen Manufacture of this Kingdom, for the Purpose of exporting the same to some other Part or Place than Great Britain or Ireland, shall be, and the same is, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, hereby repealed, as far as relates to Wool Cards or Stock Cards not exceeding in Value four Shillings per Pair, and Spinners Cards not exceeding in Value one Shilling and six Pence per Pair, used in the Woollen Manufacture; any Thing in the said recited Acts, or any other Law or Statute, to the contrary thereof in any-wise notwithstanding.

Such Parts thereof, as prohibit the Exportation of Wool Cards and Spinners Cards of the Value herein specified, repealed.

Preamble. 25 Geo. 3. c. 43; and

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament (intituled, An Act to repeal the Duties on Male Servants, and for granting new Duties on Male and Female Servants), it was enacted, That all Persons who, previously to the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, should have paid Duties on Male Servants, by that Act repealed, for any Part of the three Quarters of a Year for which the first Assessment on Male Servants under that Act was thereby directed to be made, or their respective Executors or Administrators, should, after paying the said first Assessment, have a Right to receive back from the Commissioners of Excise, or any Officer or Officers appointed by them, out of any Money which should have been paid into, or be in their Hands, such a Proportion of the repealed Duties on Male Servants so already paid to the said Commissioners of Excise, or their Officers, as should be necessary to prevent a double Payment of the said Duties, in respect of such Male Servants, for the said three Quarters on the said first Assessment, or for any Part thereof: And whereas by another Act, made in the last Session of Parliament (intituled, An Act for transferring the Receipt and Management of certain Duties therein mentioned, from the Commissioners of Excise and the Commissioners of Stamps respectively, to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes; and also for making further Provisions in respect to the said Duties so transferred), it was enacted, That all Persons who, previously to the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, should have paid the Duties on Carriages in that Act mentioned in that Behalf, for any Part of the three Quarters of a Year for which the first Assessments under that Act were thereby directed to be made, should, after paying the said first Assessments, have a Right to receive back from the Commissioners of Excise, or any Officer or Officers appointed by them, out of any Monies which should have been paid into, or be in their Hands, such a Proportion of the Duties so already paid to the said Commissioners of Excise as should be necessary to prevent a double Payment of the said Duties for the said three Quarters on the said first Assessments, or for any Part thereof: And whereas it is expedient that a limited Time should be prescribed, within which all and every Repayment, in respect to the said Duties on Male Servants, and on Carriages, heretofore under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, shall be demanded:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Person having a Right, according to the Acts aforesaid, or either of them, to any Repayment in respect of the said Duties on Male Servants, or of the said Duties on Carriages, heretofore under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, shall make Demand

'II. And whereas, by an Act made in the twenty-third Year of his present Majesty's Reign (intituled, 'An Act for granting to his Majesty several Rates and Duties upon Waggons, Wains, Carts, and other such Carriages, not charged with any Duty under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise), it was enacted, That, from and after the first Day of November one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, there should be paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, certain Duties therein mentioned: And whereas, by another Act, made in the twenty-fourth Year of his present Majesty, for granting certain Duties on Horses kept for the Purpose of Riding, and on Horses used in drawing certain Carriages, in respect whereof any Duty of Excise is made payable, it was enacted, That, from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, there should be paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, certain Duties therein mentioned; and the said two several Duties were placed under the Management of the Commissioners of Stamps: And whereas, by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament (intituled, An Act for transferring the Receipt and Management of certain Duties therein mentioned from the Commissioners of Excise, and the Commissioners of Stamps, respectively, to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes; and also for making further Provisions in respect to the said Duties so transferred), it was enacted, That all Persons who, previously to the fifth Day of July, or tenth Day of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, should have paid the said Duties on Carriages, and on Horses, in that Act mentioned, for any Part of the three Quarters of a Year for which the first Assessments under that Act were thereby directed to be made, should, after paying the said first Assessments, have a Right to receive back from the Commissioners of Stamps, or any Officer or Officers appointed by them, out of any Monies which should have been paid into, or be in their Hands, such a Proportion of the Duties so already paid to the said Commissioners of Stamps as should be necessary to prevent a double Payment of the said Duties for the said three Quarters, or Half Year, on the said first Assessments, or for any Part thereof: And whereas it is expedient that a limited Time should be prescribed, within which all and every Repayment, in respect to the said recited Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Stamps, shall be demanded;' be it therefore enacted, That every Person having a Right to any Repayment, in respect of the said recited Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Stamps, shall make Demand of such Repayment before the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, from the Commissioners of Stamps, if such Person demanding such Repayment had before paid such respective Duty at the Head Office of Stamps in London, or from the Distributor of Stamps, or their Sub-distributors, in the several Counties, Districts, or Divisions, within which such Person demanding such Repayment had before paid such respective Duties, and that no Repayment shall be made thereon that shall not be demanded, as aforesaid, before the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven.

No Demand for Repayment of Duties, under the three last recited Acts, to be satisfied, unless made to the Stamp Office before July 5, 1787.

'III. And whereas, by another Act made in the seventeenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty a Duty upon all Servants retained or employed in the several Capacities therein mentioned; and for repealing several Rates and Duties upon Glass, imposed by an Act made in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty, and for granting to his Majesty other Rates and Duties upon Glass in lieu thereof, and for the better collecting the Duties upon Glass; and for repealing the several Rates and Duties charged, by an Act made in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, upon all Persons and Bodies Politick and Corporate having certain Quantities of Silver Plate); certain Drawbacks or Allowances, in the said Act particularly mentioned, were directed to be paid or allowed to the Persons or their Agents exporting the several and respective Species of Glass, in the said Act particularly mentioned, to foreign Parts by way of Merchandize, in the Manner, and under the Regulations in and by the said Act particularly prescribed: And whereas great Inconvenience has arisen from the Regulations prescribed in that Act, for the obtaining the Drawbacks or Allowances, in the said Act particularly mentioned, on the Exportation of such Glass to foreign Parts by way of Merchandize;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons who shall have actually paid all his Majesty's Duties, by any Act or Acts of Parliament payable for, or in respect of, any Quantity of Glass whatsoever made from any of the Materials thereby respectively charged, and to and for any other Person or Persons who shall buy or be lawfully intitled to any such Quantity of Glass from the said Person or Persons who actually paid his Majesty's Duties for the same, to export from any lawful Quays, and in the lawful Hours, any such Glass, for which all the Duties shall have been paid, to any foreign Parts by way of Merchandize, upon the Terms, and according to the Directions, herein-after mentioned; that is to say, the Person or Persons so intending to export any such Glass, shall give twelve Hours Notice within the Limits of the Chief Office of Excise in London, and twenty-four Hours Notice in other Places in Great Britain, of his, her, or their Intention to pack up, in order to be exported, any such Glass, and of the Time and Place when and where the same is intended to be packed up, to the Officer or Officers of Excise, who shall be appointed for that Purpose by the respective Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland; and such Officer or Officers shall attend to see such Glass packed up, and the same shall be packed up in the Presence of such Officer or Officers, and shall be secured with such Fastenings, and sealed with such Seal or Mark, or Seals or Marks, and in such Manner, as the said respective Commissioners shall direct; and if any Person shall open such which Certificate, with the Licence, &c. are to be transmitted to the Commissioners, who are to order the Bounty to be paid.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Owner or Owners of any Buss or Vessel which shall return into Port from the said Fishery with a less Number of Men than such Buss or Vessel is hereby required to have on board, as aforesaid, unless it shall be made appear that the said Reduction was occasioned by Death, Sickness, or Desertion, without any Default, Fraud, or Collusion, on the Part of such Owner or Owners, or which shall so return within the said Space of three Calendar Months, to be computed as aforesaid, without a full Cargo of Herrings, or, having such a full Cargo, unless the Whole thereof were actually caught and taken by the Master and Crew belonging to such Buss or Vessel, shall not be intitled to any Bounty on the Tonnage of any such Buss or Vessel respectively; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Vessels returning with less than the proper Number of Men or without a full Cargo not to be intitled to Bounty.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively, to order the said Bounty to be paid by the Receiver-general or Cashier of the Customs for that Part of Great Britain from whence the Buss or Vessel, in respect whereof the same shall be payable, shall have departed, as herein before directed, out of any Money in the Hands of such Receiver-general or Cashier, arising from any Duties, Revenues, or Customs, under the Management of such respective Commissioners; and if the Receiver-general, or Cashier of the Customs at Edinburgh shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands to pay the said Bounty, the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs at Edinburgh, or any three of them, shall forthwith give the Person or Persons, intitled to receive such Bounty, a Certificate thereof, directed to the Commissioners of the Excise for that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; which Certificate being affixed to the said Licence, and other the Certificates and Documents aforesaid, and being produced to the said Commissioners of Excise, they the said Commissioners are hereby authorised and required, on Demand, to cause the Money, so certified to be due, to be paid by the Receiver-general or Cashier of the said Excise, out of any Money in his Hands arising from any of the Duties and Revenue under the Management of such Commissioners; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bounties to be paid by the Receiver general of the Customs, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, for and during the Term of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, for every Barrel of Herrings twice packed and completely cured, which shall, during any one Year, be landed from any Buss or Vessel, the Owner or Owners of which, in respect thereof, shall be intitled to the aforesaid Bounty of twenty Shillings per Ton, under and by virtue of this Act, there shall be paid a Bounty of four Shillings.

For every Barrel of Herrings twice packed and completely cured, a Bounty of 4s. to be paid:

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the Number of Barrels of Herrings imported by any such Buss or Vessel shall, in any one Year, exceed the Proportion of two Barrels and the Half of one Barrel of Herrings packed and cured as aforesaid for every Ton of the Burthen of such Buss or Vessel, then and in such Case there shall be paid, for every Barrel so exceeding the said Proportion, a Bounty of one Shilling only, and no more.

But if the Quantity imported exceeds the Proportion of two and one half Barrels to a Ton, only 1s. per Barrel above that Proportion.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That, for the more effectual Prevention of Fraud, all Herrings, the Proprietor or Proprietors of which, in respect thereof, shall be intitled to, or claim the said Bounties of four Shillings, and one Shilling, or either of them, shall be computed at the Time of their being unshipped, while they are in the State in which they are usually denominated Sea Steeks, or Herrings not repacked, and that four Barrels of Herrings in that State shall be considered as equivalent to three Barrels of Herrings packed a second Time.

Quantity to be computed while in the State of Sea Steeks, 4 Barrels of which are to be deemed equal to 3 of Herrings twice packed.

'XI. And whereas the said Bounties of four Shillings, and one Shilling, herein before granted, will 'afford Encouragement to those Fisheries alone that are carried on either by decked Vessels fitted out under 'such Regulations, and continuing at Sea for such Time as herein before respectively mentioned and directed, 'or by such open Boats as are employed on the same Coasts with those Vessels, and find in the Masters of 'such Vessels Purchasers of the Fish they take; and inasmuch as it is reasonable and expedient that all in-'dustrious Fishermen engaged in the Herring Fishery, should in some Measure participate in all such En-'couragements as Parliament shall give to the said Fishery;' be it therefore enacted, That for all Herrings which shall be landed from any Boat or Vessel, not intitled to the said Bounty of twenty Shillings per Ton,

To Boats, not intitled to the Bounty of 20s. per Ton, a Bounty of 1s. per Barrel to be paid.

Ton, and which ſhall afterwards be properly ſalted and cured, there ſhall be paid a Bounty of one Shilling per Barrel.

Caſks containing Herrings intitled to Bounty, to be branded.

XII. And be it further enacted, That before any Bounty granted by this Act, ſhall be paid to the Perſons intitled to receive the ſame, every Caſk or Package of Herrings on which the ſaid Bounty ſhall be demanded, ſhall be branded, in the Sight of the Officer of the Cuſtoms, with an hot Iron, in ſuch legible and laſting Marks or Characters as the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms ſhall direct, and as may effectually diſtinguiſh the Caſks or Packages containing Herrings landed from Buſſes or Veſſels intitled to the ſaid Bounty on the Tonnage thereof, from ſuch as contain Herrings landed from Boats or Veſſels not intitled to ſuch Bounty on the Tonnage.

Bounties of 4s. and 1s. per Barrel to be paid as the Bounty of 20s. per Ton.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Bounties of four Shillings, and one Shilling, for every Barrel of Herrings imported by any ſuch Buſs, Veſſel, or Boat reſpectively, as aforeſaid, ſhall be paid and payable by ſuch and the ſame Perſon or Perſons, and in ſuch and the ſame Manner as the ſaid Bounty of twenty Shillings per Ton ſhall be paid or payable by and under, and by virtue and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, upon a Debenture or Certificate to be prepared and granted by the Collector or Comptroller of the Cuſtoms in the Port where the Fiſh, in reſpect whereof the ſaid Bounty ſhall be payable, ſhall be entered, and to be verified by the Perſon executing the Office of Searcher in ſuch Port.

To Veſſels employed in 'The 'Deep Sea Fiſh-'ery,' additional Premiums to be paid, viz. For the greateſt Quantity of Herrings imported in one Veſſel, between June 1, and Nov. 31, 80 Guineas; for the next greateſt Quantity, 60; for the next, 40; for the next, 20.

'XIV. And, for the Encouragement of the Fiſhery uſually called The Deep Sea Fiſhery, on the North 'and North-eaſt Coaſts of this Kingdom;' be it enacted, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty ſeven, for the Space of ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, over and beſides the ſeveral Bounties herein before granted, there ſhall be payable and paid the ſeveral Premiums or Sums following; (that is to ſay), For the greateſt Quantity of Herrings which ſhall be caught by the Crew of any one Buſs or Veſſel, the Owner or Owners whereof, in reſpect of ſuch Buſs or Veſſel, ſhall be intitled to the ſaid ſeveral Bounties of twenty Shillings per Ton, and four Shillings, and one Shilling per Barrel, herein before granted, reſpectively, and which ſhall be imported or brought in, by ſuch Buſs or Veſſel, between the firſt Day of June and the thirty-firſt Day of November, in any one Year, the Premium or Sum of eighty Guineas; and for the next greateſt Quantity of Herrings, which ſhall be ſo caught, imported, and brought in as aforeſaid, the Premium or Sum of ſixty Guineas; and for the next greateſt Quantity of Herrings which ſhall be ſo caught, imported, and brought in as aforeſaid, the Premium or Sum of forty Guineas; and for the next greateſt Quantity of Herrings which ſhall be ſo caught, imported, and brought in as aforeſaid, the Premium or Sum of twenty Guineas; each of which ſaid ſeveral Premiums or Sums ſhall be payable and paid at any Time or Times after the thirty-firſt Day of November in every Year, by ſuch and the ſame Perſon, and in ſuch and the ſame Manner, as the ſaid Bounty of twenty Shillings per Ton upon the Buſs or Veſſel, the Owner or Owners whereof in reſpect of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall be intitled to ſuch Premium or Sum, ſhall be paid or payable under or by virtue and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, upon a Debenture or Certificate to be prepared and granted by the Collector or Comptroller of the Cuſtoms in the Port where the Fiſh in reſpect whereof the ſame ſhall be payable ſhall be entered, and to be verified by the Perſon executing the Office of Searcher in ſuch Port.

Duties now payable on Fiſh caught and cured for Home Conſumption to ceaſe on June 1, 1787.

'XV. And whereas it is highly expedient, as well for the Purpoſe of encouraging the Fiſheries by an 'Extenſion of the Market, as for that of providing a cheap and wholeſome Article of Food for the Support 'of the Poor, that all Duties now payable by Law on ſuch Herrings, Cod, Ling, and Salmon, or other 'Fiſh caught and cured by Britiſh Subjects, as are removed for Home Conſumption, except as herein after is 'mentioned, ſhould ceaſe and determine;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-ſeven, all Duties, now payable by virtue of any Act or Acts heretofore made, and now in force, for or in reſpect of ſuch Herrings, Cod, Ling, Hake, and Salmon, or other White Fiſh, caught and cured by Britiſh Subjects, as ſhall be removed for Home Conſumption (ſave only and except ſuch equalizing Duties as are by this Act expreſsly granted or directed to be continued on Salmon, Cod, Ling, Hake, Tuſk, and other White Fiſh, cured with Salt for which the Duty hath been paid, and which ſhall be imported into England from Scotland), ſhall ceaſe and determine.

5 Geo. 1. c. 18. recited.

'XVI. And whereas, by an Act paſſed in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King 'GEORGE the Firſt, intituled, An Act for recovering the Credit of the Britiſh Fiſhery in foreign Parts, and better 'ſecuring the Duties on Salt, the ſeveral Bounties, Rates, or Sums therein and herein after expreſſed, were 'granted and made payable for all ſuch Fiſh therein and herein after mentioned, as ſhould be exported 'from any Port or Place in Great Britain, into Parts beyond the Seas; (that is to ſay), For every hun-'dred of Cod Fiſh, Ling, or Hake, except dried Cod Fiſh, Ling, or Hake (commonly called Haberdine), 'which ſhould contain in Length fourteen Inches or upwards, from the Bone in the Fin to the third Joint 'in the Tail, five Shillings; and for every hundred Weight of dried Cod Fiſh, Ling, or Hake (commonly 'called Haberdine), three Shillings: And whereas the Diſtinction between the dried Cod called Haberdine, 'and dried Cod not ſo called, is found to be uſeleſs, inaſmuch as little leſs than the whole Quantity of dried 'Cod exported, during the laſt thirty Years, hath been ſhipped as Haberdine, and as it alſo appears that 'the Value of Cod in ſome of the foreign Markets is much diminiſhed by that Degree of Dryneſs, which 'gives it the Denomination of Haberdine;' be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, for all ſuch dried Cod, Ling, or Hake, as under and by virtue of the ſaid Act, of the fifth Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt, or any ſubſequent Act or Acts, would (in caſe this Act had not been made) have been intitled to the ſaid Bounty of five Shillings per hundred thereby granted, there ſhall be payable and paid the Rate or Sum of three Shillings per hundred Weight, in ſuch and the ſame Manner, in every Reſpect, as the ſaid Bounty, Rate, or Sum of three Shillings by the

For ſuch Fiſh as heretofore would have been intitled to 5s. per hundred Weight on Exportation, no more than 3s. to be paid.

said Act granted for every hundred Weight of dried Cod Fish, Ling, or Hake, commonly called Haberdine, is or shall be payable by force or virtue thereof; and the said Bounty of five Shillings per hundred shall henceforth be discontinued and repealed, and be no longer paid or payable; any Thing in the said Act of the fifth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, or any other Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding.

If after Oct. 1, 1786, Fish be packed in Casks, not branded with the Curers Names, to be forfeited.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That on all Barrels and Casks in which any Fish whatsoever (except fresh Fish) shall, from and after the first Day of October one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, be packed or put up, either for Exportation or Home Consumption, the respective Names of the Curers of such Fish shall be marked and burnt with Iron, in fair, large, legible, conspicuous, and permanent Characters; and that every Barrel or Cask in which any Fish (except fresh Fish) shall, from and after the Time aforesaid, be packed or put up, and which shall not have the Name of the Curer thereof marked and burnt as aforesaid, shall and may be seized and secured, by any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs; and upon due Proof of the Fact being made, on Oath, before any one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, every such Barrel or Cask shall, together with the Fish therein contained, be forfeited and lost.

After June 1, 1787, the Staves of Barrels in which White Herrings are packed for Exportation must be Half an Inch thick, and full bound, or forfeited.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Staves of every Barrel, in which any White Herrings or wet White Fish shall, from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, be packed or put up for Exportation, shall not be of a less Thickness at the Bulge than Half an Inch, and that every such Barrel shall be full bound, and that every Barrel in which such Fish shall be so packed or put up, and which shall be found to be of less Thickness than as aforesaid, or not full bound, shall and may be seized and secured by any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs; and upon due Proof of the Fact being made, on Oath, before any one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, shall, together with the Fish therein contained, be forfeited and lost.

Persons who have served as Seamen, or Fishermen, 7 Years in the Fisheries, intitled to the Privileges granted by 22 Geo. 2. c. 44.

XIX. And, for the better Encouragement of the Fisheries, be it further enacted, That every Person who shall, for the Space of seven successive Years, have followed the Occupation of a Seaman or Fisherman, on board of any Ship or Vessel employed in the Fisheries of Great Britain (being a married Man), may set up and exercise any such Trade as he is apt and able for, in any Town or Place within the Kingdom of Great Britain, without any Let, Suit, or Molestation of any Person or Persons whomsoever, for or by reason of the using of such Trade, as freely, and with the same Provisions, and under the same Regulations, and with the like Exception in respect to the two Universities of that Part of Great Britain called England, as any Mariner or Soldier may do, by virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the Second, intituled, An Act to enable such Officers, Mariners, and Soldiers, as have been in his Majesty's Service since his Accession to the Throne, to exercise Trades.

Fish cured with British Salt may be exported from one Port to another in the United Kingdom for Home Consumption.

XX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to carry, from any Port or Place in the United Kingdom of Great Britain, to any other Port or Place in the said United Kingdom, for Home Consumption, any Red Herrings or White Herrings, or any Salmon, Cod, Ling, Tusk, or other White Fish, cured with Salt, made in any Part of Great Britain.

Duties payable by 29 Geo. 2. c. 23. on the Importation of Fish cured with Salt made in Scotland, to be extended to imported Fish cured with Salt made in any Part of Great Britain, and the Regulations of that Act extended to this.

'XXI. And whereas the Salt, used in the Cure of Salmon, Cod, Ling, Hake, Tusk, and other White 'Fish, taken on the Coasts of this Kingdom, and removed for Home Consumption (save only for the Cure 'of Ling and Hake, taken by the Crews of Vessels employed in the White Herring Fishery during their 'Continuance at Sea), is subject to the Payment of the Salt Duties; and, by reason such Duties are consi-'derably less in Scotland than in England, it is just and necessary that a Duty should be paid upon the Im-'portation into England, for Home Consumption, of Cod, Ling, Hake, Salmon, and other White 'Fish, cured in Scotland with Home-made Salt, for which the Duties payable in Scotland for Home-made 'Salt have been there paid or secured, in order to make the said Duties payable in Scotland on Home-made 'Salt used in the curing of such Fish, equal to the Duties payable on Home-made Salt used in England 'in the Cure of such Fish for Home Consumption;' be it therefore further enacted, That the several Rates and Duties, which by an Act made in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the Second, intituled, An Act for encouraging the Fisheries in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, are made payable on the Importation into England of Salmon, Cod, Ling, Tusk, and other White Fish, cured with Salt made in Scotland, for which the Duty hath been there paid or secured, shall be continued, and the same or the like Rates and Duties shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be extended to, and shall be paid and payable for, all Salmon, Cod, Ling, Hake, Tusk, and other White Fish, brought from Scotland into any Port or Place in England for Home Consumption, cured in Scotland with Salt made in any Part of Great Britain, for which the Duty hath been paid or secured; and that the several Provisions, Regulations, and Restrictions, in the said Act contained or thereby prescribed, for the Entry and Clearance of such Salmon, Cod, Ling, Hake, Tusk, and other White Fish, cured with Salt made in Scotland, and for the Importation and Removal thereof, and for the Payment and securing the Duties thereby granted in respect thereof, and the several Penalties thereby inflicted for any Breach, Disobedience, or Non-observance of the said Provisions and Regulations, shall be observed, performed, and enforced, in respect to the Rates and Duties hereby granted, in the same Manner as if the same were here repeated and re-enacted; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Fish may be carried from one Port to another in Britain for Exportation, on Oath being made that they

XXII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to carry from any Port or Place in the said United Kingdom of Great Britain, to any other Port or Place in the said United Kingdom, for Exportation to foreign Parts, any Red Herrings or White Herrings, or any Salmon, Cod, Ling, Tusk, or other White Fish, the Owner of the Fish, or Master of the Vessel, making Oath before the Chief Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy (who is hereby required

Fish so brought Coastwise for Exportation to be intitled to the Bounties of 5 Geo. 1 c. 18. and to be subject to the Regulations thereof.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all such Red Herrings, White Herrings, Salmon, Cod, Ling, Tusk, or other White Fish, so brought or conveyed Coastwise from one Port or Place of the said United Kingdom of Great Britain to another, shall, upon Exportation thereof, or any Part thereof, to foreign Parts, be intitled to the same Allowances or Bounties as by the said Act, passed in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, are granted on the Exportation of Fish cured in Great Britain, such Fish being subject to the same Rules and Regulations to prevent the relanding or reimporting thereof, after Clearance outwards for Exportation to foreign Parts, and the Owner or Owners thereof being subject to the same Penalties in case of such relanding, or any other fraudulent Proceeding, in order to obtain the said Bounties, as by the said Act are prescribed or inflicted in regard to Fish cured and exported from Great Britain, any Thing in the same, or any other Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Bounties on Exportation of Fish carried from England to Scotland, to be paid by the Customs in England on Debenture from the Officer at the Port of Exportation.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Allowance or Bounty upon such Exportation to foreign Parts as aforesaid, of any Red Herrings, White Herrings, Salmon, Cod, Ling, Tusk, or other White Fish, so brought or carried Coastwise from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, to any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be paid in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; but that the Chief Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, at the Port or Place from which such Fish shall be so exported to foreign Parts, shall, upon the Request of the Person or Persons exporting the same, and Oath made before the said Chief Officer or his Deputy (who are hereby respectively impowered to administer the same) of the shipping of the said Fish, and its not being relanded, or intended to be relanded, in Great Britain, give a Debenture under his Hand, without Delay, Fee, or Reward, for Payment of the said Allowances or Bounties; which Debenture being produced to the Commissioners of the Customs in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall intitle the Exporter of such Fish, or his Assigns, to the Payment of the Allowances or Bounties granted by the said recited Act of the fifth Year of King GEORGE the First; and the said Commissioners are hereby required to pay the same out of any Money remaining in their Hands, arising by any Branch of his Majesty's Customs, Regard being had to the Priority of the Dates of the said Debentures in the Payment thereof.

Bounties on Exportation of Fish carried from Scotland to England, to be paid in Scotland, on Debenture of the Officer at the Port of Exportation.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Allowance or Bounty upon such Re-exportation as aforesaid, of any Red Herrings, White Herrings, Salmon, Cod, Ling, Tusk, or other White Fish, so carried Coastwise from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be paid in that Part of Great Britain called England; but that the Chief Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, at the Port or Place from which such Fish shall be so exported to foreign Parts, shall, upon the Request of the Person or Persons exporting the same, and Oath made before the said Chief Officer or his Deputy (who are hereby respectively impowered to administer the same) of the shipping of the said Fish, and its not being relanded, or intended to be relanded in Great Britain, give a Debenture under his Hand, without Delay, Fee, or Reward, for Payment of the said Allowances or Bounties; which Debenture being produced to the Commissioners of the Customs, or to the Commissioners of the Excise (at the Option of the Importer, or his Assigns), in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall intitle the Exporter of such Fish, or his Assigns, to the Payment of the Allowances or Bounties granted by the said recited Act of the fifth Year of King GEORGE the First; and the said Commissioners are hereby required to pay the same out of any Money remaining in their Hands, arising by any Branch of his Majesty's Customs or Excise, Regard being had to the Priority of the Dates of the said Debentures in the Payment thereof.

Entry to be made, at the Port of shipping, of the Quantity, &c. where cured, &c.

XXVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Proprietor or Proprietors of such Red Herrings, White Herrings, Salmon, Cod, Ling, Tusk, or other White Fish, as shall be put on board of any Ship or Vessel in any Port or Place in Great Britain, to be transported or carried to any other Port or Place in Great Britain, whether for Home Consumption, or Exportation to foreign Parts, or his or their respective Agent or Agents, shall, before such Ship or Vessel shall depart from the Port or Place where the same shall be so shipped, make a full and particular Entry with the Collector, or other Principal Officer of the Customs at such Port or Place, or his Deputy, of the Fish so shipped, expressing the Number of Barrels of wet Fish, with the Marks and Numbers thereof, and the Number and Weight of each Species of dry Fish, and declare upon Oath that the said Fish were cured in Great Britain, or on the Coast thereof, and whether they were cured with Salt delivered Duty-free, or with Salt for which the Duty payable by Law hath been paid or secured, and that the Salt used in curing such wet or dry Fish respectively was taken on board from some Port or Place in Great Britain, and when and where it was so taken on board, and that no Drawback for the same hath been had, or is intended to be had, upon the Exportation of the said Salt (which Oath the said Collector, or other Principal Officer of the Customs, or his Deputy, is hereby authorised to administer); and is likewise required to grant and deliver to the Master of such Ship or Vessel, without Delay, Fee, or Reward, a Certificate or Cocquet under his Hand, that such Entry or Entries, and Oath or Oaths, have been duly made; and the Master of every Ship or Vessel wherein such Fish shall be shipped to be carried Coastwise as aforesaid, or the Proprietor or Proprietors of such Fish, or his or their respective Agent or Agents, shall, before landing or putting on Shore the said Fish, or any Part thereof, or putting it on board of any other Ship or Boat in any Port or Place of Great Britain, deliver the said Certificate or Cocquet to the proper Officer of the Customs in the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, brought in, or landed, or put on board of any other Ship or Boat, upon Pain of forfeiting all such Fish as shall be so imported, brought in, or landed, or put on board of any other Ship or Boat, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and also double the Officer of the Customs to grant Certificate of such Entry, which is to be delivered by the Master previous to his landing the Fish, on Penalty of Forfeiture thereof, &c.

Value thereof, together with all the Casks or Vessels in which such Fish shall be found, the same to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor of the Fish, or of the Master of the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported and brought in; and all Officers, as well of his Majesty's Customs, as of the Duties upon Salt, are hereby authorised and impowered to seize all such Red Herrings, White Herrings, Salmon, Cod, Ling, Tusk, or other White Fish, imported, brought in, landed, or put on board of any other Ship or Boat, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and also the Casks or Vessels in which any such Fish shall be found as aforesaid.

Recital of Part of 5 Geo. 1. c. 18.

'XXVII. And whereas, by the said recited Act of the fifth Year of the Reign of King GEORGE the First, 'it is enacted, That Curers of Fish should thenceforth be allowed to take from any Salt Works, or Salt 'Pits, any such Quantity of British Salt, where the same was allowed by Law for the curing of Fish for 'Exportation, as they should think proper for curing of Fish for foreign Markets, without paying any Duty to 'his Majesty for the same, such British Salt being taken from the said Salt Pits, or Salt Works, and weighed, 'in the Presence of an Officer for the Duties on Salt, and lodged in a Warehouse, under the Lock and Key of 'the said Officer, as well as the Proprietor of the said Salt, which British Salt, so lodged as aforesaid, should 'remain in the Custody of the said Officer, jointly with the said Proprietor, during the several Intervals of the 'several Fishing Seasons; the Proprietor or Proprietors, or his or their Agent or Agents, entering, at the next 'Office for the Duty on Salt, the Quantity of British Salt so lodged by him or them, from Time to Time as 'aforesaid, and the said Officer keeping an Account of every Quantity of the said Salt so entered and lodged in 'his Custody as aforesaid; such Salt to be delivered to the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof, or his or their 'Agent or Agents, for the Purposes, and upon the Terms and Conditions, and in the Manner, and to be 'used, returned, and accounted for, as in the same Act is mentioned and directed: And whereas a Doubt 'hath arisen, whether under or by virtue of the said last mentioned Act, Curers of Fish, in Great Britain, 'are authorised to take British Salt from any distant Salt Works, or Salt Pits, where the same is allowed 'by Law for the curing of Fish for Exportation, and to ship and remove the same Coastwise to any other Port 'or Place in Great Britain, for the Purposes in the same Act mentioned, and more especially whether such 'Curers of Fish, as reside in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, are at Liberty, under the said Act, or 'any other Act or Acts, to remove Salt Coastwise from any Salt Pits, or Salt Works, in that Part of Great 'Britain called England, the Existence of which Doubt hath in many Instances been found detrimental to 'the said Fisheries;' be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Curers of Fish in any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain, to take from any Salt Works, or Salt Pits, in Great Britain, such Quantity of British Salt as they shall think proper, as well for the curing of any Kind of Fish for Exportation to foreign Markets, as for the curing of Herrings and other Fish taken in the Herring Fishery for Home Consumption, without paying any Duty for the same, and to bring, carry, transport, and remove Coastwise, the Salt so taken, to any Port or Place in Great Britain, such Curers of Fish, or their respective Agents, before such Salt shall be removed from the Salt Work, or Salt Pit, entering, at the next Office for the Duty on Salt, the Quantity of Salt so intended to be removed, and procuring the same to be weighed in the Presence of an Officer for the Duties upon Salt before the Removal thereof, and also making Oath in Writing before such Officer (to be by him filed in his Office for the Duty on Salt), declaring the true Quantity of such Salt, and that all the said Salt is intended for the curing of Fish for Exportation, or for the curing of Herrings and other Fish taken in the Herring Fishery for Home Consumption (as the Case may be), and that the said Salt is intended to be carried, transported, or removed Coastwise to such a Port or Place (naming the same), and shall not, by their Order, Consent, or Connivance, directly or indirectly be sold, given away, or any ways delivered but for the Purpose aforesaid; and also making a full and particular Entry of such Salt with the proper Officer of the Customs at the Port or Place where the same shall be, or is intended to be shipped, for the Purpose of being brought, carried, transported, or removed Coastwise as aforesaid, and also giving Security to the said Officer, by their Bond or Obligation, in double the Amount of the Duties payable by Law upon such Salt, for the due Payment of such Duties; and the Proprietor or Proprietors of such Salt so to be brought, carried, transported, or removed Coastwise as aforesaid, or his or their Agent or Agents, shall, on the Arrival thereof at the Port or Place for which it shall have been so shipped and entered as aforesaid, and before the same shall be relanded, make a full and particular Entry with the Collector, or other Principal Officer of the Customs there, of the Salt so brought in and intended to be relanded, expressing the true Quantity thereof; and also making Oath in Writing, before such Collector or other Officer, that all the said Salt was shipped or taken on board at such a Port or Place (naming the same), and when the same was so shipped or taken on board, and that all the said Salt is intended for the curing of Fish for Exportation, or for the curing of Herrings and other Fish taken in the Herring Fishery for Home Consumption (as the Case may be), and that no Part of such Salt, since the same was shipped, hath been, or shall be thereafter, by their Order, Consent, or Connivance, directly or indirectly sold, given away, or any ways delivered, but for the Purpose aforesaid, and that no Drawback for the same hath been had, or is intended to be had, upon the Exportation of the said Salt; after which Oath the said Collector, or other Principal Officer of the Customs, is required to grant and deliver to the Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Salt, or his or their Agent or Agents, without Fee or Reward, a Certificate, under his Hand, that such Entry hath been made; fifth Year of the Reign of King GEORGE the First prescribed or directed, concerning the Salt thereby allowed to be taken by Curers of Fish for Exportation, as aforesaid; any Thing in the said recited Act, or in an Act made in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the Second (intituled, An Act for encouraging the Fisheries in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland), or any other Act or Acts, or any Custom or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Salt carried Coastwise, contrary to this Act, to be forfeited, with double its Value, besides the Duties.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any British Salt shall be removed from the Works or Pits, or carried, brought, transported, or removed, Coastwise, or landed, contrary to the Regulations prescribed by this Act, and to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, such Salt, and also double the Value thereof, over and besides the Duties payable for the same, shall be forfeited, to be recovered of the Proprietor or Proprietors of such Salt, or the Master of the Vessel so carrying, bringing, transporting, or removing the same.

8 Geo. 2. c. 12. and

'XXIX. And whereas by an Act passed in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the Second (intituled, An Act for granting and continuing the Duties upon Salt, and upon Red and White Herrings, for the further Term of four Years; and for giving further Time for the Payment of Duties omitted to be paid for the Indentures and Contracts of Clerks and Apprentices), it is enacted, That, from and after the Time therein mentioned, no foreign Salt should be delivered over from the joint Custody of the Officer and Proprietor into the sole Custody of the Proprietor, or his Agent, for curing Fish for Exportation, except he or they should give Security, to the Satisfaction of the Chief Officer of the Salt Duty in the Port where such Salt shall be imported, that he or they should and would account for the foreign Salt so by him or them to be received, in the Terms of, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of the therein recited Acts, made in the fifth and eighth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, or should answer the several Penalties in the said Acts directed to be recovered from the Proprietor offending against the said several Acts, or either of them: And whereas by an Act, passed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act for reducing the Allowances for Waste on Salt and Rock Salt; for regulating the Exportation of Salt to Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark; for repealing the Laws allowing the Use of foul Salt for Manure only; for allowing a Drawback on the Exportation of Glauber or Epsom Salts; for restraining Fish Curers from being Dealers in Salt; for regulating the Exportation of Herrings from the Isle of Man; for better securing the Duties on Salt; and for indemnifying Persons who have been guilty of Offences against the Laws relating to the Duties on Salt); after reciting that British Salt, delivered Duty-free, for the curing of Fish for foreign Markets, was liable to Frauds for want of Security being given as for foreign Salt, when delivered over into the Curers sole Custody at the Beginning of the fishing Season, it is enacted, That, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, on delivering over such British Salt from the joint Custody of the Officer and Proprietor, into the sole Custody of the Proprietor, or his Agent, for the curing of Fish for Exportation, the said Proprietor, or his Agent, should give Security, to the Satisfaction of the Chief Officer of the Salt Duties, in the Port or Place where such Salt had been lodged, in double the Amount of the Duties, that he or they should and would account for the same in the Terms of, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of the several Acts of Parliament made in that Behalf, in like Manner as the Curers of Fish then did for foreign Salt taken for the curing Fish for Exportation, by virtue of an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the Second: And whereas the Security usually required by the Officer of the Salt Duties, under and by virtue of the said recited Acts of the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the Second, and the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, being the Bond of the Proprietor himself, and two Sureties, in double or treble the Amount of the Duties payable for the Salt in respect whereof such Security is taken, hath been found of great Inconvenience to the Proprietors, and to operate very much to the Discouragement of the Fisheries:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That, from and immediately after the passing of this Act, whenever any Salt, foreign or British, shall be delivered over from the joint Custody of the Officer and Proprietor, into the sole Custody of the Proprietor or his Agent for curing Fish for Exportation, such Proprietor, or his Agent, shall not be obliged or required, under or by force or virtue of the said recited Acts of the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the Second, and the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, or either of them, or any other Act or Acts whatsoever, to give any Security, by Surety or Sureties, for the Purposes therein expressed, but his own Bond, in double the Amount of the Duties only, and no otherwise, any Thing in the said Acts, or any of them, contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

25 Geo. 3. c. 63. in Part recited.

Inconvenience having arisen from the two last recited Acts,

Salt may henceforward be delivered into the Custody of the Proprietor on his own Bond.

Credit to be given on the Back of the Bond for the Quantity of Salt accounted for, &c.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That Credit for the Quantity or Quantities of Salt, for which such Bond shall be given as aforesaid, which shall have been used and duly accounted for, shall, from Time to Time, be given by the proper Officer on the Back of the said Bond; and also that, when a proper Account shall have been rendered of the Whole of the Salt specified therein, or the Duties paid upon the Deficiency thereof, the said Bond shall be void, and shall be delivered up and cancelled.

Bonds exempted from Stamp Duties.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That no Bond or other Security, to be given by any Taker or Curer of Fish, or the Master or Owner of any Boat, Buss, or Vessel employed in the British Fisheries, or in the Exportation of Fish, or in the Conveyance of Fish from one British Port to another, for or in respect of such his Occupation or Employment, under or by force or virtue of any Law or Statute now in being, shall be charged or chargeable with any Stamp Duty whatever, any Law, Statute, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

'XXXII. And whereas Evidence hath been laid before Parliament of the pernicious Effects which the Fees or other Perquisites of certain of the Officers of his Majesty's Customs, especially in Scotland, have produced on the Fisheries of this Kingdom, and as the Requisition of such Fees, however sanctioned by long Usage, appears, by the Orders of the Commons in Parliament assembled, in the Year of our Lord

'one thousand six hundred and sixty-two, by virtue of an Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late 'Majesty King CHARLES the Second, to be contrary to the declared Intention expressed in the said Orders;' be it further enacted, That, from and immediately after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs to demand, ask, or accept, any Fee or other Perquisite for or account of any Transaction relative to any Vessel or Boat employed in the Fisheries, or in the Transportation from one Place to another of Fish, or of Salt for the Use of the Fisheries, or for or on account of the Payment of any Bounty or Debenture on Fish; and in case any such Officer or Officers shall demand, ask, or accept any such Fee or other Perquisite as aforesaid, he or they (being thereof lawfully convicted) shall forfeit and pay treble the Amount or Value of the Sum of Money or other Thing so by him or them demanded, asked, or accepted, and shall be forthwith discharged from such Office or Offices as he or they shall then hold in his Majesty's Customs.

Officers accepting Fees to forfeit treble the Value, and to be discharged.

'XXXIII. And whereas the Fisheries carried on from Time immemorial on the Coasts of the Isle of 'Man, by the Inhabitants thereof, have proved a fruitful Nursery of able Seamen for the national Service: 'And whereas, if due and equal Encouragement with that granted to his Majesty's other British Subjects, 'were given to the Inhabitants of the Isle of Man employed in the said Fisheries, they might be further 'improved and extended, to the Advantage of the publick Service, and to the Increase of the Marine, Wealth, 'and Force of the Kingdom;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, the like Bounty of one Shilling per Barrel, as above mentioned, shall be paid for all such Herrings caught by the Inhabitants of the Isle of Man, as shall be landed in the said Island from any Boat or Vessel, and shall be afterwards properly salted, cured, and packed, in Manner as above directed for British-caught Herrings; which said Bounty shall be exclusive of all Bounties payable on Exportation of Herrings to foreign Parts, and shall be payable and paid, with respect to such Herrings as shall be landed in the Isle of Man, from and out of the Surplusage of the annual Customs of the said Island, over and above the Expenditure and Civil Establishment of the said Island, by the Receiver General of the Customs thereof for the Time being, upon the Owners of such Herrings complying with, and conforming to, the like Rules and Regulations, and being subjected and liable to the like Penalties in case of relanding, or any other fraudulent Practices, in order to obtain such Bounty, as are by this Act directed with regard to British-caught Herrings landed in Great Britain.

From June 1, 1787, the Bounty of 1 s. per Barrel to be paid to the Inhabitants of the Isle of Man for Herrings caught and cured by them in Terms of this Act;

XXXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, all such Herrings as shall be caught and cured by the Inhabitants of the Isle of Man, and exported from thence, or from Great Britain, to foreign Parts, shall, upon Exportation thereof, or any Part thereof, be intitled to the like Allowances or Bounties of two Shillings and eight Pence per Barrel on White Herrings so exported, and of one Shilling and nine Pence per Barrel on Red Herrings so exported, as by an Act, passed in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First (intituled, An Act for recovering the Credit of the British Fishery in foreign Parts, and for better securing the Duties on Salt), are granted on the Exportation of White and Red Herrings respectively; which said Allowances or Bounties shall, on such White or Red Herrings exported directly from the Isle of Man to foreign Parts, be payable from and out of the same Funds, and in the same Manner respectively, as in this present Act is provided and directed with respect to the Bounty on the landing of Herrings in the Isle of Man, caught and cured by the Inhabitants thereof, as above mentioned; and such Allowances or Bounties on Exportation to foreign Parts of White and Red Herrings respectively, caught and cured by the Inhabitants of the said Island, and exported from Great Britain to foreign Parts, shall, on the Owner or Owners thereof producing due and proper Certificates, signed by the Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of his Majesty's Revenue of the said Island, of such Owner or Owners having taken the like Oaths, and of their having conformed to the like Provisions and Regulations, as by this Act are directed in the Case of Herrings cured in Scotland, and exported from England, and of Herrings cured in England, and exported from Scotland, be payable from the same Funds, and be issued and paid under and subject to the like Conditions, Restrictions, and Regulations, and with the like Penalties in case of relanding such Herrings, or in case of any other fraudulent Practices in order to obtain the said Bounties, as by the said recited, or by this present Act, are provided, prescribed, and inflicted, in regard to Herrings cured in, and exported from, any Part of Great Britain; any Thing to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

and on Exportation thereof to be allowed the Bounties granted by 5 Geo. 1. c. 18.;

to be paid, if exported from the Isle of Man, as the Bounty of 1 s. per Barrel is payable there; and if from Great Britain, as the Bounty on Exportation from Britain, and under the like Regulations,

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Duties which are at this Time payable by Law on such Herrings as are caught and cured by the Inhabitants of the Isle of Man, and imported into Great Britain, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, cease and determine.

Duties now payable on the importation of Herrings from the Isle of Man to cease.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the like Restrictions and Penalties as are herein before mentioned and provided, with regard to Officers asking or accepting of any Fee or Perquisite for or on account of any Transaction relative to the Fisheries shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be extended, in the most full and ample Manner, to the Fisheries of the Isle of Man.

Penalties on Officers taking Fees to extend to the Fisheries of the Isle of Man.

'XXXVII. And whereas by an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act for the further Encouragement of the Herring Fishery on the Coasts of the Isle of Man; and for 'obviating a Doubt which has arisen with respect to the allowing the Bounties upon the British White Herring 'Fishery in the Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-one), any Sort of Herrings caught upon the 'Coasts of the Isle of Man, and cured there, are allowed to be imported and brought into any Part of Great 'Britain, upon Payment of the Duties therein mentioned, the Master, or other Person having the Charge 'of the Ship so importing such Herrings, bringing with him a Certificate or Certificates from the Governor, 'Lieutenant Governor, Commander in Chief, or Chief Magistrate for the Time being, that Oath had been 'made before him or them, in the Presence of the Officer of the Customs for the Port or Place where such 'Herrings were put on board, that the same were bona fide taken on the Coasts of the Isle of Man, and 'cured there; which Certificate or Certificates were also to be attested by the said Officer of the Customs, 'and to express the Number of Barrels, and Quantity of such Herrings respectively, and the Marks of the 'Package expressed in the Bill or Bills of Lading, with the Name or Names, Place or Places of Abode, of 'such Person or Persons as shall have made the Oath thereby directed, and where and to whom such Herrings 'shall be consigned in Great Britain: And whereas such Herrings are frequently exported from Parts of 'the said Island so distant and remote from the Place of Residence of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, 'Commander in Chief, or Chief Magistrate for the Time being, that the Exporters thereof cannot, with- 'out great Inconvenience and Expence, make the Proof, and obtain the Certificate required by the said re- 'cited Act:' Now, for the Remedy thereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, the said Oath, required by the said recited Act to be taken before the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Commander in Chief, or Chief Magistrate for the Time being, shall and may be administered by the Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of the Revenue, at the Port or Place in the said Island where such Herrings shall be shipped or loaden, who is and are hereby respectively authorised and required to administer the same, and to grant a Certificate thereof, in the Form and to the Effect required by the said recited Act, under his Hand and Seal of Office; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

From Aug. 1, 1786, the Oath required by the recited Act, may be administered by the Revenue Officer at the Port in the Isle of Man, where Herrings are shipt, &c.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, and they are hereby authorised and required to make such Addition to the present Salaries of the Officers, whose Incomes shall be reduced by the Abolition of such Fees, or other Perquisites as aforesaid, in lieu of, and by way of Compensation and Satisfaction for the same, as they in their Discretion (having Regard as well to the creditable Subsistence of the Officer as publick Œconomy) shall judge necessary, and so order or direct; any Thing in this present Act, or in any other Act or Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Commissioners of Customs may add to the Salaries of Officers in consideration of the Abolition of Fees.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons do presume to counterfeit, erase, or alter any Certificate, Debenture, or Cocquet, by this Act directed to be made, or shall use any such Certificate, Debenture, or Cocquet, knowing the same to be so counterfeited, erased, or altered, such Person or Persons shall be liable to such and the same Punishment as by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm is provided for Persons convicted of Forgery.

Persons counterfeiting Certificates, &c. to be punished as Forgers.

XL. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, in making any Oath directed or required to be made by this Act, shall wilfully and falsely swear any Matter or Thing which, if the same had been sworn in any Cause or Suit depending in any of his Majesty's Courts, would have amounted to wilful and corrupt Perjury; every Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be liable to such and the same Punishment as by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm is provided for Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Persons making false Oaths to be deemed guilty of Perjury.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That all the Penalties and Forfeitures herein before given by this Act, shall be distributed in Manner following; that is to say, one Moiety thereof to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to any Person or Persons who shall seize, inform, or sue for the same, and shall be sued for, recovered, levied, prosecuted, and determined, by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, respectively, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed.

How Penalties are to be applied and recovered.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall happen to be sued or prosecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons shall or may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence; and if upon Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, discontinue, or forbear prosecuting such Action or Actions, then such Defendant or Defendants shall be intitled to Double Costs against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, for which he or they shall have the like Remedy as a Defendant can have in any Case where Costs are given him by Law.

General Issue.

Double Costs.

'XLIII. And whereas, by virtue of an Act passed in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King 'GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for the better preventing fresh Fish, taken by Foreigners, being imported 'into this Kingdom, and for the Preservation of the Fry of Fish; and for the giving Leave to import Lobsters 'and Turbets in foreign Bottoms; and for the better Preservation of Salmon within several Rivers in that 'Part of this Kingdom called England: And also, of an Act passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late 'Majesty King GEORGE the Second, intituled, An Act to render the Law more effectual for preventing the 'Importation of fresh Fish taken by Foreigners; and to explain so much of an Act made in the thirteenth and four- 'teenth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, as relates to Ships exporting Fish to the Ports of the 'Mediterranean Sea; and for the better Preservation of the Fry of Lobsters on the Coast of Scotland; no 'Herring, Cod, Pilchard, Salmon, or Ling, fresh or salted, dry or bloated, nor any Grill, Mackarel, Whiting, 'Haddock, Sprats, Coal-fish, Gull-fish, Congers, or any Sort of flat Fish, nor any other Sort of fresh 'Fish whatsoever (except Turbets and Lobsters), can be legally imported into, sold, or exposed to Sale in 'that Part of this Kingdom of Great Britain called England, which shall be taken by, bought of, or received 'from, any Foreigner or Foreigners, or out of any Stranger or Strangers Bottom (except Protestant Stran- 'gers), inhabiting this Kingdom; and every Person offending by such illegal Importation, Sale, or Ex- 'posal to Sale, is liable to forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered by any Informer, 'in any of the Courts in Westminster Hall, and to be distributed and disposed of in the Manner following; '(that is to say,) one Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety thereof to the Poor of the

If Officers suspect fresh Fish to have been imported into London contrary to 1 Geo. 1. c. 18; 9 Geo. 2. c. 33. and this Act, two Justices may summon the Parties, and determine the Complaint.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Justices, before whom any such Complaint or Information shall be made as aforesaid, to summon before them any Seaman, Fisherman, or other Person, who shall, in or by such Complaint or Information, appear to be a necessary Witness as to the Matter thereby charged, to appear before them, at a Time and Place to be specified in the Summons; and in case such Seaman, Fisherman, or other Person, shall not appear according to such Summons, then, upon due Proof made of the Service of such Summons in Manner aforesaid, to cause such Seaman, Fisherman, or other Person, to be apprehended by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of such Justices, and to be brought before them, and thereupon, whether such Seaman, Fisherman, or other Person, shall appear upon Summons, or be apprehended as aforesaid, such Justices shall and may proceed to examine him upon Oath as to the Matter of such Complaint or Information; and in case such Seaman, Fisherman, or other Person, shall wilfully refuse to be sworn, or to give Evidence therein, or shall evidently wilfully forswear himself, or prevaricate in his Evidence, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justices, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to commit such Seaman, Fisherman, or other Person so refusing to be sworn, forswearing himself, or prevaricating as aforesaid, to the Common Gaol of the County or Place in or for which such Justices shall then act, to remain for the Space of one whole Year, without Bail or Mainprize.

Witnesses refusing to attend may be apprehended, and giving false Evidence to be committed for a Year to Gaol.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That the Examination of every Person so to be examined as a Witness as aforesaid, shall be taken down in Writing by or before the said Justices; and in case the Party or Parties, charged by such Complaint or Information, cannot be made to appear at the Time of such Examination, and such Witness cannot be made to attend when such Party or Parties shall appear, then and in such Case such Examination in Writing shall and may be read and made use of, and shall have the same Force and Effect as if such Witness were then actually present and examined viva voce.

Written Evidence to have the Force of viva voce Examination.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That the aforesaid several pecuniary Penalties, by the said in Part recited Act of the ninth Year of the Reign of King GEORGE the Second granted or imposed, shall be recoverable by and before any two Justices of the Peace for any County, Division, or Place, on due Proof and Conviction of the Offence by the Oath of any credible Witness, or by Confession of the Offender or Offenders, and that the Whole of such Penalty or Penalties shall belong to the Informer or Informers making or laying such Complaint or Information as aforesaid; and in case of the Nonpayment of such Penalty or Penalties, with the Charges incident to such Conviction, immediately upon such Conviction, the same Penalty or Penalties and Charges shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Offender or Offenders, by Warrant or Warrants under the Hands and Seals of the Justices before whom he or they shall have been convicted; and for want of sufficient Distress, the Offender or Offenders shall be sent by the same Justices to the Common Gaol of the County, Division, or Place, in or for which they shall respectively act, there to remain for the Space of one whole Year, without Bail or Mainprize, unless such Penalty or Penalties shall be sooner paid; any Thing in the said last mentioned Acts, or either of them, or any other Act or Acts, contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

How Penalties incurred under recited Part of 9 Geo. 2. c. 33. are to be recovered and applied;

'XLVII. And, to the End that the Person or Persons convicted of any Offence for which any 'such pecuniary Penalty, as last aforesaid, is by this Act made recoverable, may not by Flight or 'Removal after such Conviction evade Imprisonment, where such Penalty shall not be paid upon his 'or their Conviction;' be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices before whom any such Offender or Offenders shall be so convicted as aforesaid, immediately after such Conviction to order such Offender or Offenders into Custody (in case the said Penalty or Penalties due on such Conviction be not immediately paid), during such Time, not exceeding forty-eight Hours, as such Justices shall think proper to allow for the Return of the Warrant for levying such Penalty by Distress and Sale as aforesaid.

and if not paid upon Conviction, the Parties may be imprisoned 48 Hours, to give Time for levying by Distress.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Justices before whom any such Offender shall be convicted as aforesaid, either by the Confession of the Party convicted, or other Witness, that such Party hath not Goods or Chattels sufficient to answer the Penalty or Penalties by him incurred, then, and in such Case, the same Justices shall and may, without issuing any Warrant of Distress, commit the Party so convicted, as if such Warrant had actually issued, and a Return of nulla bona been made thereon.

In case of Insufficiency of Goods, the Parties may be committed.

XLIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any such Offender, ordered to be committed to Prison under or by virtue of this Act, shall, before his actual Commitment to Prison, procure Security to be given by two sufficient Securities, to the Satisfaction of the Justices before whom he shall have been convicted, for Payment of the Penalty or Penalties by him incurred, with the Charges incident to his Conviction, within the Space of fourteen Days, exclusive of the Day of Conviction; then, and in such Case, it shall and may be lawful for such Justices to accept such Security, and upon Nonpayment thereof, at the Time stipulated for that Purpose, it shall and may be lawful for the same Justices, or any other Justices of the Peace for the same County, Division, or Place, to cause the Party convicted, and his Sureties, to be apprehended by Warrant or Warrants under their respective Hands and Seals, and them to commit to the Common Gaol of the County, Division, or Place, in or for which such Justices shall act, for such Space of Time as the Party convicted was subject and liable to have been imprisoned, in case no such Security had been given, unless such Penalty and Charges shall be sooner paid.

Security for Penalties may be accepted, and if not fulfilled, the Party convicted and his Sureties may be imprisoned.

L. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons so convicted as aforesaid shall think himself or themselves aggrieved by the Judgement or Determination of any Justices of the Peace, upon any Complaint or Information in pursuance or by virtue of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person or Persons, within the Space of three Calendar Months then next ensuing, to appeal to the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County, Division, or Place, in or for which such Justices shall have acted, such Person or Persons so appealing giving, and being hereby required to give, at least six Days Notice to the Informer or Informers of such his, her, or their Intention to bring such Appeal, and of the Matter thereof, and shall, with two sufficient Sureties, enter into Recognizance before some Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same County, Division, or Place, to appear and prosecute such Appeal at the said General or Quarter Sessions, and abide by the Order or Determination of the same Court, and to pay the Costs and Charges thereby awarded against such Person or Persons (if any); and every such Appeal shall by the said Court of General or Quarter Sessions be examined, and the Circumstances of the Case fully enquired into, and the Matter finally heard and determined; and in case such Judgement, Determination, or Conviction, so appealed against, shall be affirmed, the Party so appealing shall pay unto the Informer or Informers Double Costs, to be ascertained by the Order of the same Court.

Parties convicted, on finding two Sureties, may appeal to the General or Quarter Sessions; and if the Conviction be affirmed, to pay Double Costs.

LI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in case the Person or Persons so intending to appeal shall have paid the Penalty, under any such Conviction as aforesaid, into the Hands of the said Justices by way of Deposit, or shall be then imprisoned, such Person or Persons shall and may appeal to the said General or Quarter Sessions within the Time aforesaid, on his or their entering (without Sureties) into such Recognizance as herein before mentioned, and remaining in Prison in the mean Time, or depositing such Penalty into the Hands of the said Justices, there to remain until the Merits of the said Appeal shall be heard and determined.

'drawn by Lot for the Service of the said Militia, and also in the Payment of the Money directed to be 'paid by the Parishes to those who may be allotted to serve: And whereas it would be more expedient that 'the balloting for Men to serve in the said Militia for the Counties of Sussex and Kent should be by the 'Division of Parishes, to which Division there are no Peace Officers:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the last Tuesday in October next, his said Majesty's Lieutenant, or on his Death or Removal, or on his Absence, any three or more Deputy Lieutenants of the Counties of Sussex and Kent respectively, shall and may issue out his or their Orders to the Chief Constable of the several Hundreds in the Rapes in the said Counties where their Subdivisions may have been or may be appointed, directing such Chief Constables to issue their Precepts to the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of each Parish within their respective Hundreds or other Divisions, to return to the Deputy Lieutenants within their respective Subdivisions, at the Place and on the Days by them directed, fair and true Lists, in Writing, of the Names of all the Men usually dwelling within their respective Parishes, between the Ages of eighteen and forty-five, distinguishing their respective Ranks and Occupations, and for such several other Purposes as are by this Act directed to be done and performed by the Constables, Tythingmen, Headborough, or other Officer of each Parish, Tything, or Place, within their respective Hundreds or other Divisions; and that the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the several Parishes in the said Counties to whom such Orders shall be issued, shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed the Officers of such Parish, and shall be invested with all the Powers and Authorities, and be liable to the several Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as the Constable, Tythingman, Headborough, or other Officer of any Parish, Tything, or Place, are subject and liable to, for or upon account of his refusing or neglecting to return such Lists as aforesaid, or being guilty of Fraud or wilful Partiality in making thereof, or not attending the Orders issued by his Majesty's Lieutenant, or any three Deputy Lieutenants, respectively, or for the several other Offences in the said recited Act, or in the present Act contained.

'CXVI. And whereas it may happen, through Neglect or otherwise, that in some County or Place 'the Militia may not be raised, according to the Directions of this Act; and it is just and reasonable that 'all his Majesty's Subjects should contribute equally toward the Expence of raising and supporting a Militia 'for the Defence of the Kingdom;' be it therefore further enacted, That the Lieutenant, or any three Deputy Lieutenants, of every County, Riding, and Place, where the Militia shall be raised, according to the Directions of this Act, shall, on or before the twenty-fifth Day of December, in every Year, transmit a Certificate to the Clerk of the Peace, containing an Account of the Names, Number, and Rank of the Officers, and the Number of Private Men of the Militia in that Year, and the Time during which such Militia hath been trained and exercised; and every such Clerk of the Peace shall deliver such Certificate to the Justices of the Peace, at their General Quarter Session to be held next after the twenty-fifth Day of December, in every Year, on the Day on which such Session shall be opened, and the same shall be filed amongst the Records of such Session; but where no such Certificate shall be received by the Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, he shall certify the same under his Hand and Seal to the Justices so assembled, and such Certificate of the said Clerk of the Peace shall be filed by him amongst the Records of such Session.

Certified Returns of the Militia to be annually sent to the Clerks of the Peace to be filed.

Where no such Return is received, the same is to be certified by the Clerk of the Peace.

CXVII. And be it further enacted, That in every County and Place where no such Certificate shall be transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, the Sum of five Pounds shall be annually paid for and in lieu of every private Militia Man by this Act directed to be raised within the same County or Place; and the Justices of the Peace shall and are hereby required, at their said General Quarter Session, to rate and assess the Sum of five Pounds per Man as aforesaid upon every such County or Place, in such Manner, and according to such and the same Proportions, upon every Town, Parish, and Division within such County or Place, and the same shall be levied, collected, received, paid, and accounted for in such Manner, and by such Ways and Means, and with such Powers of Distress, and other Remedies for enforcing the Collection and Payment thereof, and for punishing all Persons whose Duty it shall be to collect or account for the same, who shall make Default therein, as are directed with respect to County Rates by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty, intituled, An Act for the easy assessing, collecting, and levying of County Rates, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament: Provided always, That no Person residing or having an Estate within any such County or Place, who shall have served as an Officer in any Body of Militia raised within this Kingdom for the Space of four Years, or who shall be then actually serving as an Officer in the Militia, shall be liable to pay any Part or Share of such Rate or Assessment to be made as aforesaid, provided such Person shall have delivered a Certificate of such Service to the Clerk of the Peace for the County or Place wherein he shall claim such Exemption, and also a Roll or List of his Tenants, and the Places of their Abode; which Certificate, and Roll or List, shall be signed by such Person, and every such Clerk of the Peace shall forthwith file such Certificate, Roll, and List, amongst the Records of the Quarter Session; and whenever the said Rate or Assessment shall be ordered to be raised within such County or Place, such Clerk of the Peace shall certify to the High Constables of every such County or Place the Names of all Persons whose Certificate shall have been so filed, and who shall have claimed such Exemption as aforesaid, and the Names of their Tenants, so inserted in such Roll or List, and such High Constables are hereby required to transmit such Certificate, and Roll or List, to the Petty Constable of every Township or Place wherein the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments of such Person claiming to be exempted are situate, in order that the same may not be assessed or charged to such Rate or Assessment.

5*l.* per Man for the Number to be raised, to be assessed annually on Places from whence no such Returns are sent.

No Person who has served four Years as an Officer, to bear any Part of the said Assessment.

CXVIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where a certain Number of Militia Men are directed to be raised for any County, together with any City or Town being a County of itself, and the Militia shall not be raised for such County and City, or Town, the Payment of the said Sum of five Pounds per Man upon the whole Number of Militia Men so directed to be raised as aforesaid shall be divided and apportioned which said Office should, from Time to Time, be managed by two Persons, to be nominated and appointed by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and should be called and known by the Name of The Principal Land Coal-meters for the City and Liberty of Westminster; which Act was to continue in force for three Years, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas his said late Majesty did appoint Thomas Paulin Merchant, and William Arnold Fishmonger, to be Principal Coal-meters for the City and Liberty of Westminster aforesaid, and afterwards, by his Grant or Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, did grant unto the said Thomas Paulin and William Arnold the said Land Coal Meters Office for the City and Liberty of Westminster, to have and to hold the said Office unto them the said Thomas Paulin and William Arnold jointly and severally, together with all Powers, Privileges, Advantages, and Emoluments thereunto belonging, and as are granted in and by the said recited Act for and during his Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure: And whereas the said Office of Principal Coal-meters hath been held, from Time to Time, by Persons appointed thereto by his said late Majesty and his present Majesty, and John Paulin and John Arbuthnot are now the Principal Land Coal-meters for the City and Liberty of Westminster, and other Places aforesaid, and such Office hath been granted to them, the said John Paulin and John Arbuthnot, by his said present Majesty, by his Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain: And whereas the said recited Act of the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, was continued by several subsequent Acts, passed in the twenty-third, twenty-fourth, thirty-first, and thirty-second Years of the same Reign, and was amended by the last of such Acts; and, by an Act passed in the sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, was, subject to such Amendments, further continued, and was also explained and further amended; and, by an Act passed in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of his said present Majesty, the said former Acts were further continued until the twenty-fourth Day of June, which will be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and a further Amendment was made with respect to some of the Provisions contained in the said Act of the twenty-third Year of his said late Majesty: And whereas the said Acts have been found useful and beneficial, but they might be rendered much more so if the same were further explained and amended, and proper Provisions made for obviating Mischiefs and Abuses which were not foreseen nor sufficiently provided against; and the said Acts would more effectually answer the Purposes thereby intended, and might be more easily understood and better executed, if the same were comprised in one Act of Parliament:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, there shall be provided and continued within the City and Liberty of Westminster, one Publick Office, which shall be called by the Name of The Land Coal-meters Office for the City and Liberty of Westminster, and shall be managed by the said John Paulin and John Arbuthnot, or in case of their Death or Removal, by such other two Persons as shall, from Time to Time, be nominated and appointed by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; which said John Paulin and John Arbuthnot, or such other two Persons so to be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, shall be called and known by the Title of The Principal Land Coal-meters for the City and Liberty of Westminster;
